Delete Ultimatum Feature From Note

FRANCE AGREES TO MEET BRITAIN HALF WAY ON TERMS OF NOTE

Premier Poincare Gives Way on Three Chief Points
—British Government Sends Final Instructions to
Lord Crewe at Paris—Council of Ambassadors Meets

LONDON, Nov. 21.—(By the Associated Press.) The British government's final instructions to Lord Crewe, British ambassador at Paris, for handling the delicate situation which during the past week has threatened the existence of the entente, were forwarded to Paris early today. Foreign office officials expressed the hope that definite and permanent beneficial results for the entente itself and for the entente's relations with Germany would be achieved by the meeting of the council of ambassadors in Paris this afternoon.

The French willingness to meet the British half way on the terms of the allied note to be despatched to Germany, is said here to have been the salvation of the situation. Premier Poincare having given way on three chief points.

M. Poincare has assured the British that the ultimatum feature could be deleted from the German note; that the request for the expulsion of the ex-crown prince from Germany could be dropped, and that no definite penalties would be threatened, immediately.

Whether Germany succeeds, as a British spokesman put it today, in maintaining "her traditional role of playing the fool" remains to be seen when the moment comes for Berlin to reply to the allied communication.

Accept Reservations

PARIS, Nov. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—Lord Crewe, the British ambassador, received instructions from London this morning regarding the note to the allies to be sent to Germany. It was then announced that the council of ambassadors would meet this afternoon.

One little word, the word "consult," is what has been delaying final action by the council on the note since Monday. It appears from today's developments. The decision reached by the ambassadors in that day was that the note to Germany would set forth the allied demand that the military clauses of the peace treaty be carried out and that if Germany failed to satisfy that demand, the allies would "consult" as to what action the situation called for.

Objections to that word were raised in the French cabinet meeting Monday afternoon. It was learned that the necessity thus imposed upon France to "consult" her allies every time action was required, was just what Germany was relying upon. That no step forward would be made if after making the concession to the British government on the elimination of any reference to penalties, the hand of the French government should still remain tied.

After consultation between Lord Crewe and Lord Curzon, on that point, the British ambassador suggested another word to his government which he thought might satisfy London and at the same time would remove the objections of the French cabinet. It is understood the British accepted the modification which amounts to tacit acceptance of the French reservations of the right to act separately, if Germany's attitude should make action necessary.

RENIE DAVIES DENIES SHE'S DEAD

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Someone with a perverted sense of humor today started a rumor that Renie Davies, daughter of City Magistrate Davies and sister of Marion Davies, movie star, had shot and killed herself in her apartment on West 58th street, and the report was telephoned police headquarters. Immediately detectives were sent to Miss Davies' home. She received them and personally denied the report of her death. An unknown voice who attempted to imitate the voice of Marion Davies called up two close friends of Miss Renie Davies and advised them to come up to Miss Davies' apartment to examine the will that she had left. When the two men reached the apartment, they found Miss Davies in bed, where she said she had been for the last two weeks with an attack of neuritis.

FAMOUS OLD THEATRE BURNED

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The Thalia theatre, once the Bowery theatre, oldest playhouse in the city, today was damaged by a fire. The theatre, erected before the Civil war, was the scene of Buffalo Bill's first show in the east. For a time in the old days, it gave an evening with Della Fox, Lillian Russell, Maggie Mitchell, Lottie Gibson, Weber & Fields, the Russell Brothers, David Warfield, Harrigan & Hart and other favorites.

PARIS WITHOUT MILK

PARIS, Nov. 21.—Paris was without milk this morning because of a strike of milk handlers for higher wages. The police organized emergency delivery crews in an effort to provide milk by noon.

FARMERS' FUNDAMENTAL NEED

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 21.—The farmers' fundamental need is a satisfactory market which could be brought about by extension of the co-operative endeavor, construction of deep waterways, and the greater electrification of farms, said Clifford Pinchot, governor of Pennsylvania, in an address prepared for delivery today before the convention of the Farmers' union.

Father and Children Miraculously Escape Death When Truck is Cut Down by Lowell-Salem Train

RUINS OF TRUCK AND 7-YEAR-OLD ARTHUR ANTHONY WHO CAME THROUGH CRASH WITHOUT A SCRATCH

Angus Anthony of the Fairlawn section of Tewksbury and his two children, Arthur, aged 7, and Winifred, 8, miraculously escaped death at 8 o'clock this morning when a big 5-ton motor truck in which they were riding was struck by the 740 Salem train at Lynch's crossing about a mile this side of the Tewksbury Centre station. The truck was thrown 60 feet off to one side of the road, both children were pitched headlong through the windshield and their father was pinned in the cab against the steering wheel. The body of the truck was demolished and its load of varied produce, including eggs, apples and canned goods, was scattered about the ground.

The boy, Arthur, was unhurt except for a slight scratch here and there; his sister complained some of pain in her back, and the father's major injuries were confined to his right leg.

Fate guided the destinies of the three, for it is almost unbelievable that the same accident could have happened again without at least one and possibly three fatalities.

Anthony operates a commercial trucking business between Boston and Lowell and was on his way to this city when the accident occurred. He was going by way of Tewksbury Centre so that he might leave his children at the Forest school. It was his usual morning trip, although in most instances in the past the children have ridden in the back of the truck. This

PUBLIC HEARING ON ELECTION HOURS

In connection with a request made last night at the city council meeting by Councilor Eugene A. Fitzgerald of Ward 2 relative to possibility of changing the hours for voting at the coming city election on Dec. 4, the board of election commissioners today, replying to a query sent them by Clerk Stephen Flynn, announced a public hearing on the matter on Friday, Nov. 23 at 2 p. m.

The hearing will be held in the office of the election commission at city hall.

In its letter to Clerk Flynn today the commission states that it has full authority in regard to hours for voting.

YONKERS MAYOR DIES OF BULLET WOUND

YONKERS, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Mayor Walter M. Tausig today died from a bullet wound, believed by the police to have been self-inflicted.

He was found this morning in the garage behind his home, a revolver near him, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

The police said they knew of no reason why the mayor should have killed himself. A democrat, he was defeated for reelection this month by Ulrich Wessentzen, republican.

Mayor Tausig was found about 8:30 o'clock immediately after the shot was fired. He died an hour later with Dr. James T. Gordon, one of his closest friends, in attendance, and Mrs. Tausig at the bedside.

Miss Mrs. Tausig, a daughter, was the only member of the family at the house when the newspaperman arrived. She said she had been asleep at the time of the shooting and knew little concerning it. She was unable to confirm a report that her mother had discovered the tragedy.

MAN CHARGED WITH ATTEMPT TO BRIBE IS HELD IN $1000 BAIL

State Officers Allege That John Tsaffaras Attempted to Bribe Local Inspector of the State Highway Commission—Arrest Made at City Hall

An alleged attempt to bribe Edward J. Barrett, a local inspector of the state highway commission, department of public works, was frustrated yesterday afternoon when State Officers E. J. O'Neil and E. J. Sherlock, arrested a man at city hall where applicants for motor vehicle licenses are examined, heard John Tsaffaras, of 20 Varney street, making flattery overtures to the inspector and offering him $50 a week if he would "pass" five men proposed by him at given intervals.

Tsaffaras was immediately placed under arrest, and charged with attempted bribery. In district court this morning he pleaded not guilty, and was continued in $1000 bonds until Dec. 5.

The state officers stated this morning that Tsaffaras has been under examination for several months. It is their opinion that he is responsible for similar attempts at bribery in Lawrence, Haverhill and Boston, where the same name has been tried, unsuccessfully within the past few months. The plan to "bribe" applicants, allege the officers, invariably involved dilittates whose knowledge of motor vehicles and their operation would not creditably entitle them to the privileges enjoyed by a lawfully licensed person. If five of these "dilittates" were passed weekly, the inspector was to be advanced the sum of $50. It is understood that the proposer, received $50 for each man accepted in this manner.

One of the Most Impressive Funerals Ever Held for a Child Conducted Today

First Extensive Liquor Smuggling Operation Attempted in Months

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—While one of the most impressive funerals ever held for a child is being conducted today for the four-year-old Irving Pickelny, whose body was found yesterday in a dark tenement basement on the lower East Side, the police are directing every resource at their command in a search for the boy's fiendish slayer.

The child is thought by the police to have been lured to the basement by a degenerate, attacked and smothered to death in an effort to stop his cries.

Irving, who was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pickelny, disappeared on Oct. 26.

The finding of the boy's body deeply touched the Lower East Side, and large sympathetic crowds gathered outside the Pickelny home and the building in which the body was found.

The police last night found a six-year-old girl and ten 12-year-old boys who told stories of having been approached by men who tried to entice them into the building in which Irving's body was found.

HIGHLANDS, N. J., Nov. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—Jersey coast rum runners took more than 20 loads from five liquor carriers about 10 miles off the Highlands last night in the first extensive smuggling operation attempted in months.

With the exception of one load, which was dumped into the sea when

McADOO SUPPORTERS CLAIM VICTORY

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 21.—(By the Associated Press) Claiming better than a two to one victory in the county proposal conventions over sponsors of a state-wide presidential campaign in behalf of Henry Ford, supporters of William G. McAdoo today began work on a state platform which they hope may be carried into the national arena by their candidate.

Returning today from counties representing approximately three-fourths of the state voting power, gave the McAdoo forces 20,000 votes in the state convention against less than 10,000 for the Ford men, according to leaders in the two campaigns.

SHIP RAMMED WHALE AND BROKE ITS BACK

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—When officers of the navy transport Argonne found difficulty in keeping up speed off the coast of Lower California, they discovered they were carrying a whale on the bow of the vessel. It was necessary to back the ship to get rid of the creature. That was the story told by Lieut. Commander L. W. Johnson, surgeon of the transport, when it arrived at Port Mason yesterday from New York. The ship evidently had rammed the whale and broke its back.

UNIQUE CHRISTENING CEREMONY

A unique christening ceremony will take place in St. John's church, North Chelmsford, next Sunday afternoon, when the six children of Mr. and Mrs. Alessandro Moreno, R.F.D., West Chelmsford, ranging in ages from six months to 11 years, will appear before the baptismal font "ensemble." The children are as follows: Miss Filomena, age 11 years; Marion, 9; Mike, 7; Leo, 4; Emilio, 2; Mary, six months. When the first Moreno baby was born almost a dozen years ago, the parents agreed that they would not hold a christening until six little Morenos were in the family. Six months ago, Mary entered the world, completing the sextet and making possible next Sunday's proposed festival.

TWO ALLEGED BANDITS CAUGHT AFTER CHASE

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 21.—Two bandits walked into the jewelry store of C. M. Bowers, a stone's throw from the state house, this morning, held up the proprietor, and escaped with about $50 in cash. One of the men held up Bowers with a revolver, forcing him to hand over the money. No attempt was made to rifle the showcases or safe, and the bandits hurriedly retraced their steps. Police officers at once started a search for the bandits, working on a meagre description which Bowers was able to furnish.

Arrested After Chase

MANCHESTER, N. H., Nov. 21.—Thos. Harrison, who gave his address as 3230 Lincoln avenue, Chicago, and Thomas McQueen, who claims Plainfield, N. J., as his home, were arrested by Motor-cycle Officer Thomas Kelly on the Concord highway this morning, shortly after the robbery of a Concord jewelry store, after a chase in which Officer Kelly covered both men with his revolver and ordered them to halt. Both men are said by the police to have admitted that they had robbed the jewelry store of C. M. Bowers on North Main street, Concord, about 30 minutes before the arrest.

He leaves his wife, Grace L. (Methot) Trengove. The body will arrive in Lowell Wednesday morning and will be taken to the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Arthur T. Simpson, 260 Walker street, by funeral director Joseph Albert.

PLATT—James Platt, a well known resident of this city for the past 30 years, died yesterday at the Lowell Corporation hospital after a brief illness. Deceased was a valued employee of the Merrimack Mfg. Co. for a number of years. He was an attendant of St. Patrick's church, and made his home at 15 Dutton st. He is survived by one son, Thomas H. Platt of this city, and two daughters, Mrs. Lee Van Fore of Salisbury, N. H., and Mrs. John Gifford of Fall River. The body was removed to the rooms of Undertakers James W. McKenna Sons.

CROWD AT KING'S TOMB

LEXOR, Egypt, Nov. 21. Crowds of tourists journeyed to the Valley of the Kings today, hoping that Howard Carter and his expedition would resume work on the tomb of Tutankhamun and that more treasures might be brought forth. Mr. Carter appears to be marking time for the present, evidently awaiting the decision of Egyptian government regarding working arrangements.

FORD FOR PRESIDENT TICKET

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 21 (by the Associated Press)—A Ford-for-President ticket will be placed on the ballot in Nebraska at the April primaries, according to an announcement made at a small gathering of progressives, farmer-laborers and independents in the office of Roy M. Harrop, national temporary chairman of the progressive party, here today.

CARD OF THANKS

We, the undersigned, wish to express our sincere thanks and gratitude to the many friends and relatives, including the sisters and pupils of the Notre Dame academy and the brothers of St. Patrick's school, who by their kind deeds, spiritual and floral offerings, and expressions of sympathy, helped to lighten the burden of sorrow placed upon us by the recent death of our beloved husband, Mr. JAMES W. HARRIS. MRS. MARGARET MANNING and Family.

CARD OF THANKS

We, the undersigned, wish to thank our relatives and friends for the kind words, floral tributes, the kindness and death of our dear wife and mother, and same will never be forgotten. We also thank everyone who sent beautiful flowers and a beautiful bouquet. MRS. MRS. E. E. GRIFFIN, MR. DAVID HIGGINS, MR. AND MRS. JOHN HIGGINS, MR. AND MRS. JAMES MORRIS.

LINER DOCKS AFTER BATTLE WITH GALES

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Nearly a day late, the White Star liner Majestic docked today, after a six-day battle with gales and storm head seas. At times the liner was able to make only 300 miles a day instead of the usual run of about 600.

SUFFERED PARALYTIC SHOCK

Henry Achin, Sr., father of Henry Achin, Lowell member of the house of representatives, suffered a paralytic shock in the C.M.A.C. Club rooms shortly after the adjournment of a meeting last night. He was rushed to the Lowell General hospital in the ambulance and was said to be resting fairly comfortably this morning. Mr. Achin, who is over 60 years old, became ill at the conclusion of the club session and his condition became so serious that medical aid was summoned. His removal to the hospital was immediately ordered.

TO LINK WATER AND RAIL TRAFFIC

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Compulsory measures to link water and rail traffic are recommended in a report made public today by a committee of the chamber of commerce of the United States. The committee also suggests, among other proposals, that "congress direct the work of engineers of the United States army to consider the waterways of the country as a whole and in their relation to other transportation resources and to recommend a definite development plan and a schedule of priorities."

While the railroads must form the principal part of the nation's transportation system, the report declares, water transportation is cheaper, and better under certain conditions, and should be developed to supplement rail facilities and provide a "coordinated and efficient system of transportation."

Establishment of through rail-and-water, and water-and-rail routes and rates "regulated by public authority" is proposed by the committee, which adds that "water carrier rates on inland waterways should normally be lower than rates for similar services."

Because of the difference in capital and operating costs, it also recommends that the "separation of water and land" be given "the necessary authority and funds" to operate the government large lines on the Mississippi and Warrior rivers "along the lines of good commercial practice" to enable commerce to develop "more effectively and efficiently its policy regarding the waterway improvement of navigable channels."

FIRE DISCOVERED IN NICK OF TIME

The early discovery of a fire on the roof of a barn on the property of the John P. Quinn Co. in Garfield street shortly after 11 o'clock last night prevented a serious fire. The barn was filled with hay. Box 47 was sounded when the blaze was discovered and before it had any opportunity to spread the firemen had it under control. The fire was discovered by Officer John Burns and Mr. Quinn was told in his private of this officer for his quick work in sounding the alarm.

Three minor fires occurred yesterday. A telephone alarm at 4:22 was sent in for a fire in a far barrel at 21 Dana street at 6 o'clock a telephone alarm was sent in for a dump fire on Inland street and at 9:08 a still alarm was recorded for a fire on the Alton street dump.

AUTO STRIKES WOMAN

Blinded by the glaring headlights of an approaching car, William A. Wilson of 14 Royal street, while driving on Thornehill street at about 1:20 last night, failed to see three women who were crossing the street. His machine struck one woman and she in falling caused the other two to fall. None of them was injured and although Mr. Wilson desired to assist the three women they refused to give their names.

PROBE OF VETS' BUREAU

Public Hearings End—Testimony of Mrs. Mortimer in Private to Be Made Public

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—With the public hearings virtually ended, counsel for the senate veterans' committee began today the task of shaping up for the consideration of the committee, the vast volume of information gathered in the investigation of the activities of the Veterans' bureau.

With the closing of the public sessions, John P. O'Regan, of New York city, general counsel, told the committee last night that what has been presented publicly "constitutes but a fragment of what has been developed, both in relation to the neglect of the disabled and to corruption and waste in the bureau."

The information collected both in the central office and the field will be considered by the committee at business sessions during the next three weeks. There also will be conferences with officials of the bureau for further study of ways and means of bettering the service to the World war veterans, but despite the enormous task ahead of it, the committee hopes to have its report ready for the senate by Dec. 15.

There probably will be several public sessions for the admission to the record of reports and other data and it may be that Mrs. Katherine Mortimer, of Philadelphia, will be heard at one of these in response to her request that she be given a public hearing for discussion of the testimony of her husband, Elias H. Mortimer, principal witness against former Director Charles R. Forbes and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Williams of Philadelphia. The committee will not pass upon her request until next week, but it has decided to comply with her wish that her testimony at a private session of the committee, two weeks ago, be made public. The date of its publication, however, remains to be determined.

Michigan, with 125,000 acres of land devoted to beet growing, now leads all the states in sugar beet production.

A NICE COOL FOURTH OF JULY!

Icebound in July! Seems rather hard to believe, yet that's what happened to the S. S. Baychimo during its fur-trading expedition into the Arctic. The Baychimo, a Hudson Bay Company vessel, got 230 miles farther into the frozen wastes of the north than any other trading vessel in history in its quest for the million dollars' worth of Alaskan and Siberian furs it brought back.

RETRIAL OF NIKOLOFF ORDERED

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21. The criminal court here has ordered the retrial of Atanas Nikoloff, who was recently acquitted of the charge of assassinating M. Daskaloff, the Bulgarian ambassador, on Aug. 26 last. Nikoloff, according to the police, has confessed that his real name is Jordan Greenkov. He said he first saw the name of Nikoloff on a passport given him by the Bulgarian authorities, whose possible complicity in Daskaloff's assassination will be investigated.

WILL OF ANDREW BONAR LAW

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The will of the late Andrew Bonar Law is a characteristically simple document, written in the former prime minister's own handwriting on a single sheet of Colonial office notepaper. The document is dated Aug. 1, 1916, when Mr. Bonar Law was colonial secretary. A codicil was executed in 1922. According to the Daily Mail, the will has not yet been admitted to probate and the amount of the estate is unknown.

$275,000 LOSS CAUSED BY FIRE

GOLDSBORO, S. C., Nov. 21.—More than 1000 bales of cotton, valued at $200,000 were burned early today in a fire which destroyed a large warehouse here. TO RECOVER LUSITANIA'S TREASURE

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 21.—A crew is being recruited here by Captain Benjamin F. Leavitt of the steamer Blakeley, who plans to make an attempt next spring to recover the treasure that went down with the Lusitania, when the big liner was sunk off the Irish coast during the war. The expedition is being outfitted at Philadelphia, Captain Leavitt's home port, and he said that only the most thoroughly experienced seamen and expert divers would be taken on the trip.

CUTICURA HEALS ITCHY PIMPLES

On Face and Arms. Red and Large. Would Fester. Caused Irritation.

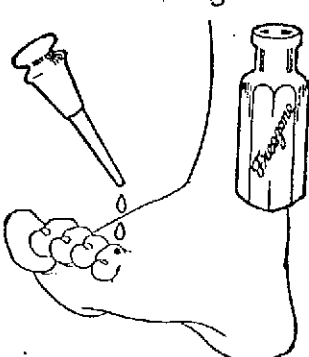

"Some time ago my face and arms broke out with pimples. When they first appeared they were red and large, and after a short time would fester. The pimples itched and burned causing me to rub and irritate the affected parts. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and purchased some. After using them for a week my face was a lot better, and at the end of a month I was healed." (Signed) Miss Myrtle Henderson, Franklin Ave., Houlton, Maine.

MATRIMONIAL

With simple ceremonies performed in the presence of only immediate relatives and intimate friends, Miss Mary G. Cunningham, daughter of Mr. Mary Cunningham of 27 Wyman street, was united in marriage to Mr. John P. McIntyre of this city at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in immaculate Conception chapel. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Owen P. McFadden, D.D., assistant pastor of Immaculate Conception church.

The bridegroom was Miss Cecilia Cunningham, sister of the bride, the best man, Mr. Richard Bigbee, a close friend of the bridegroom. Mrs. Leo Hickey played the organ ceremonials. Dinner was later served to the newly married couple and attendants at the bride's home in Wyman street, and the couple left soon afterward on a honeymoon that will take them to New York city and thence to the honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre will be at home at 252 North street after Dec. 15.

The bride's wedding gown was of white satin trimmed with fur and pearls. She wore a marriage veil of lace decorated with orange blossoms and pearls. She also carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid wore a gown of tangerine and metal lace and carried a bouquet of roses.

Ziskind—Cohen
One of the season's prettiest weddings was held last night at Highland hall, Branch street, when Miss Alice Ziskind, daughter of Mr. Hyman Ziskind, of 4 Apple street was united in marriage to Nathan E. Cohen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Cohen, of 62 Ware street, by Rabbi Elias Wolfson at 7 o'clock. The bride was becomingly gowned in white duchess satin trimmed with pearls and wore a fan-shaped veil caught up with a coronet of orange blossoms. Miss Milton E. Ziskind, daughter of the bride's father, was the bridesmaid. She was attired in pink georgette, trimmed with gold and silver ribbons, and carried pink tea roses. The best man was Edward B. Ziskind, brother of the bride. The flower girls, who carried bouquets of rose petals and marguerites, were Little Dorothy Weinman of Brooklyn and Mildred Steinberg of Northampton. They both wore honey dew crepe de chine dresses. The bridesmaids were Esther Ziskind, who wore a silver metal gown, Rosalie Cohen, honey dew chiffon and Ruth Cohen, broadened silk and cream trimmings and Saree Cohen with pink taffeta and primrose. The ushers were Raphael Cohen, Edward Ziskind of this city and Edward and Jack Friedman of Brooklyn. There were over 250 guests present from Boston, Northampton, Brooklyn, New York City, Brooklyn, Syracuse, Ithaca, Va. Hickey, Wis., and Portland, Me. Mayor John J. Donovan and also ex-Mayor Perry D. Thompson were among the guests. The bride is a popular graduate of the Lowell high school '20 and has been employed as bookkeeper by the Middlesex Paper Tube Co. The groom, a World War veteran, is very well known in the city, being secretary of the Independent Workmen's Circle, executive officer of the Ideal Co-operative bank and member of the Vinal Beth. Mr. and Mrs. Nathan E. Cohen left on an extended honeymoon trip to New York, Atlantic City and Philadelphia after Dec. 1 in they will be at home to their friends at 4 Apple street.

CHALIFOUX EMPLOYEES HOLD MERRY PARTY

Associate hall was filled last evening with many merry dancers of both sexes drawn together by announcements of a Thanksgiving novelty party conducted by the Employees' Mutual Benefit Association of the J. L. Chalifoux Co. More than 300 couples enjoyed the festivities, partook of refreshments at intermission and entertained numerous invited guests, including Mayor John J. Donovan.

The hall was tastefully decorated in yellow, white and pale blue. Balcony railings were adorned with colorful and American flags were given prominent positions on balconies and stage. Many tall palms and other greenery and numerous bouquets of flowers banked the big orchestral platform. Dancing was continuous until intermission at 10:30, when refreshments were served.

The Atherton Furniture Co. and The Curtains Shop contributed in every possible way to the success of the party, their merchandise occupying a most prominent place in the specially decorated lobby.

The committee in charge of the dance was as follows: Mr. A. L. Hiler, Miss Desjardins, Mr. Desjardins, Miss Riley, Miss Grier, Mr. Grier, Miss Philbin, Mr. Louis Grier in his capacity of floor director was ably assisted by Mr. Arthur Brunelle, assistant floor director and the following ladies: Miss Crockett, Miss Belmore, Miss Martin, Miss Whaley, Miss Deraches, Miss Abbott, Miss Dawe, Mrs. Saccio, Mr. Boyle, Mr. Burnell, Mr. Churchill, Mr. Robinson, Mr. Martin, Mr. R. Rocheleau, Mr. O'Neil and Mr. Dodge.

The committee on decorations, Mr. Cornier and Mr. Schreyvogel, the committee in charge of ticket sales, Mr. Chaput and Mr. Grier, and all other committees and aids rendered excellent service and were responsible for the success of the affair.

Stubborn Coughs

Stop Quick With Home Made Cough Mixture

Not until you make your own cough mixture—a half pint of it for a small sum—will you know how easy it is to stop any bad persistent cough as it by magic.

It's pleasant-tasting, but that don't stop it from knocking out a cough quicker than anything else in the world. Children love it.

Get from any druggist one ounce of Tarnant (double strength)—to this add a little granulated sugar and enough water to make one-half pint. That's all there is to it.

This mixture stops the irritation, allays the inflammation, cleans out choked nostrils, makes breathing easier, and causes sore throat and hoarseness to disappear.

With speed almost beyond belief this home made cough mixture stops the loudest hoarsest cough, and all because in it there is a substance (from costly for ordinary cough syrups) that immediately covers the membrane like a soothing, healing poultice and blessed relief comes at once.

And it is always worth while to bear in mind that any remedy that overcomes catarrh, partially or wholly, is bound to be of benefit to those who are troubled with head noises and catarrhal deafness.

Get Tarnant and get better. Adv.

Don't Spoil a Good Meal With a Bad Stomach

It is really a painful sight to see so many thousands of people worrying about what they can eat and what they can't eat. Dyspepsia, they call themselves, but they stretch the imagination when they do it. All these people need to make their healthy, cheerful and of sound appetite is a box of M-O-Na Tablets. The stomach of a dyspeptic is overworked and run down. It needs help to digest the food, but more than that it needs a prescription that will cleanse, renovate, strengthen and put elasticity into the stomach walls. M-O-Na is the prescription that will do this and do it promptly that you'll wonder why you didn't try it before. It stops the pain of gas and distress after eating in five minutes. It is undoubtedly the greatest stomach tonic ever given to the public by a specialist in stomach diseases. Leading druggists everywhere and Green's drug store sell M-O-Na on the money back plan. Shepherdson Walks Again

Mt. Vernon, N. Y., is amazed to see their local townsman, Mr. A. H. Shepherdson, of 5 West Sixth St., walking about the streets again after being confined to a wheel chair for two years from the effects of rheumatism. Mr. Shepherdson says he obtained Weldona, a preparation for rheumatism, from his druggist, and gives it credit for his recovery. Weldona is said to be very effective for rheumatic conditions and is sold at Dow's and other drug stores. A booklet, "Germs of Rheumatism," explains this preparation, and will be sent free to all who write to Weldona Co., 132 Boylston St., Boston.—Adv.

PACKERS MUST OPEN BOOKS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. Swift & Co., Wilson & Co., and the Cudahy Packing Co. will be given until Nov. 23 by Secretary Wallace to open their books and records to auditors of the department of agriculture before action is taken to invoke penalties prescribed by the packers and stockyards act. Negotiations for examination of the packers' records have been conducted for a year, the secretary said in announcing his decision, but the company officials have insisted that such a study was not authorized by the law and would be a violation of their rights.

PLAN ELABORATE INITIATION EXERCISES

Plans for the largest initiation exercises ever held in French America circles locally have been completed for the grand event to be held Nov. 29, when over 500 members will be initiated into Union St. Jean Baptiste of America. The day will open with a solemn high mass celebrated at St. Joseph's church at 10:30 o'clock, at which members of Courts Charlemagne, Therese and J. N. Jacques, together with the new applicants for membership, will attend. Following the mass the body will repair to the C.M.A.A. hall in Pawtucket street. At 4:30 o'clock, in the reception hall, a banquet will be tendered the members, both old and new, following which the party will march to the Memorial Auditorium where at 7 o'clock the new members will be initiated into the union. Among the speakers of the evening will be Very Rev. J. E. Turcotte, D.M.I., and Mr. Henri Duprez of Nashua, N. H.

The following committees are in charge of the affair:

Banquet: George Marchand, Jr., president; Messrs. A. Courcy, E. Montmarquet, Henri Duprez and Hildred Giguere.

Parade: A. Courcy, president; Messrs. Montmarquet and Rosario DuBois.

Entertainment: George Marchand, Jr., president; Messrs. Arthur Drapeau, Pierre Drapeau and Messrs. A. Giguere, Bernadette Dion and Lucille Ouellette.

Reception: Joseph Montmarquet, president; Messrs. Amie Bourde, A. Courcy, Henri Duprez and Ernest Rousseau.

Publicity: Armand Gellinas, president; Mr. Henri Duprez and Miss Lucie Ouellette.

Field marshal: Mr. Ernest Pineau.

FLUSH THE KIDNEYS BEFORE BREAKFAST

Drink Lots of Water, Also Take a Little Salts if Back Hurts

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Excess of rich food creates acids, which excite the kidneys. They become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood. Then we get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and memory disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of stinging, begin drinking a quart of water each day, also eat about four ounces of Epsom salts from any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys may act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush and stimulate the kidneys; also to help neutralize the acids in the system, so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

And Salts is inexpensive; makes a delicious effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby often avoiding serious kidney complications. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Adv.

Work Begun Today On Construction of New Club House at Vesper-Country Club

HOW NEW VESPER CLUB HOUSE WILL LOOK WHEN FINISHED

Work on the construction of a new club house at the Vesper Country club to replace the one destroyed by fire in the spring of this year began today by the building firm of Kerans & Clifford of Boston, awarded the contract as the result of competitive bidding just closed. Seven Lowell contractors figured the job but the firm of the Boston company was the most attractive by far. Bids ranged from in the vicinity of $20,000 to $115,000.

The contract was awarded upon plans and specifications prepared by J. Williams Deal Sons Co., architects of Boston, and approved by the club about a fortnight ago.

Representatives of the Kerans & Clifford Co. in conference with members of the executive committee of the club, in whose hands all plans for a new building were placed by vote of the club last spring, said today that they expect to get the foundation in place before snow sets in. The club will be ready for occupancy next summer.

Description of New Home

The new home is to be a low, rambling, irregular building of local field stone and hand-split red pine shingles. The low lines are obtained by bringing the roof line down over the piazzas. This irregular plan was brought about by the natural contour of the ground and in order to make the best of the view of the river which the location afforded. These conditions suggested this arrangement, which gives an ideal orientation and makes the most economical use of the salient features of the topography. The location has been changed slightly from the old site to get a better view of the river and to take advantage of the prevailing south-west breeze—also to permit a "day-light" basement at the lower level.

Three sides of the building will have broad piazzas and terraces. The main entrance opens into a hall and reception room, in which are located the club office and checking room. At the right in this reception room is a field stone fireplace. A separate wing to the left contains the main lounge, a room 32x47 feet, so treated as to carry out a home-like atmosphere in the club. There are large stone fireplaces on either side of this room. French doors open from the lounge on to covered porches and on the river side to a brick terrace.

The spacious wing facing up the river is given over to dining facilities of the club on the first floor. Here is located a dining room 32x47 feet, with ample accommodations for two hundred people. Two sides of this room command a sweeping view of the Merrimack river to the west. This room will be so finished as to give a simple, colonial effect. The kitchen and serving room adjoin the dining room on the north side. Their equipment is to be of the most modern type and such as will take care of large assemblies during the year, which are so intimately a part of the social life of the club.

In the basement of this wing is located all service, including heating plant, laundry, and baking. The east wing is planned for the exclusive use of women. On the first floor is their reception room, adjoining which is a locker room with ample provision to take care of all the women golfers of the club. There are also women's showers and toilets in connection with the locker room. On the second floor of this wing are women's sleeping rooms and a morning room with sun porch for their special use.

Along the front of the main portion of the building and over the lounge are located 21 members' sleeping rooms, several with private bath.

The clubhouse, which is being erected on a hill overlooking the river, contains two men's dormitory rooms, the idea being to give the members the maximum sleeping quarters that the space will allow. As the club a year ago erected a separate men's golf house and locker building, it was not necessary to provide space for them in their new home, but one of the unique features of the new layout is a men's grill, located in the basement of the east wing, which is reached by a separate entrance from the ground floor. A smoking room for the men is also provided in the basement, approached by a short flight of steps direct from the lobby.

Vesper Club Born in 1871

The Vesper club was started in 1871 as a golf club and as such was well known throughout the country. With the advent of golf in this country, a golf club, on which the club is a golf club, was held out as the first golf course in the Merrimack valley and one of the first in the United States. The clubhouse, which being replaced by fire in the spring of this year.

Yonge island, on which the club is located, is reached by an iron bridge from the state highway and a 550 foot suspension foot bridge, which is known as the longest foot bridge of this type in the world.

The Vesper club is one of the most ideally situated clubs in the country as it occupies the entire area of a nine-mile square island in the Merrimack river and is situated five miles up the river from Lowell on the main boulevard to the White Mountains. The island is a beautiful spot in itself, with interesting hills and valleys, and heavily wooded with magnificent oaks and pines.

Two years ago the club enlarged its old nine-hole course, which was located on the island, to an eighteen-hole course, laid out by Donald Ross. This has proven to be one of the most, if not the most, interesting courses in this part of the country, and for that reason, it has been unusually popular with the devotees of the game.

The club membership consists of 400 resident members within a radius of 15 miles of Lowell, 400 non-residents from 10 to 100 miles of Lowell, and non-residents beyond the 10-mile radius; 20 associate members, and 10 life members by election. The first two classes are limited and the membership is full at present. The non-residents beyond forty miles is an unlimited class.

The present officers are: Harry G. Pollard, president; John C. Leggett, vice-president; Albert D. Milliken, vice-president; Arthur J. Murkland, treasurer; Andrew G. Swapp, secretary.

The board of governors consists of the above and Ellis L. Humphrey, H. H. Haines, George R. Haines, and Harvey W. Tarbell.

WILL DEBATE PARKING PROBLEM. The representatives of the English classes of Mr. Payne and Mr. Sturtevant will hold a debate on Friday afternoon under the auspices of the Greenleaf debating society in the hall of the high school.

The topic of discussion is: Resolved, That all parking automobiles within a radius of one-quarter of a mile of Kearney square should be prohibited. The affirmative will be supported by Joseph Sullivan, Alphonse Achin and Robert Chenevert, and the negative side will be argued by James Plonk, George Hyman, Grebaum and Harry O'Neil.

VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF IN GAGE ACTION

Verdicts totalling $1000 were returned against Martin A. Gage by a superior court jury yesterday afternoon in the tort action brought by Stella M. Emery as executrix of the estate of her late husband, Nathaniel A. Emery. The verdicts were taken by Judge Stanley E. Quinn late yesterday afternoon.

The late Mr. Emery was for forty years or so an employee of the Gage family and while harvesting the last winter met with injuries which resulted in his death. It was held by the plaintiff that defendant showed negligence in failing to keep equipment in the best of shape and failure to warn the deceased of the difficulty attendant upon his work. A high degree of culpability was claimed and $10,000 was asked. Miss Gage, it was brought out during the trial of the case, is not protected under the workmen's compensation act.

Recipes of Our Pioneer Mothers

For the home treatment of dizziness were wonderfully dependable. True, they knew nothing of drugs, but owed their success to the roots, herbs and barks of the field. It is interesting to note that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the most successful remedy for female ills we have, was originally prepared for home use from one of these recipes. Its fame has now spread from shore to shore, and thousands of American women now well and strong claim they owe their health and happiness to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.—Ady.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Committee Appointed to Receive Rear Admiral Benson—Meeting Last Evening

At the regular meeting of Bishop Delany General Assembly, Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus, last night, the following committee was appointed to receive Rear Admiral Benson, who speaks in the Memorial Auditorium next Sunday evening under the auspices of the League of Catholic Women: Walter H. Hickey, chairman; Dr. Thomas E. Carroll, Thomas J. O'Donnell, William H. Gallagher, Dr. Hugh Walker, Hon. Dennis J. Murphy, Andrew Molloy, Thomas H. Delaney, Daniel J. Owens, A. Powers, P. J. Nevin, Charles H. Harris and John T. Burke. The admiral is a member of the Fourth Degree Assembly of New York city. This special committee is to meet Thursday night.

Patrician Navigator John V. Donoghue presided at the meeting and after the regular business was disposed of, a letter from Louis Watson, master of the fourth degree in this province, was read. It contained the coming expression of the fourth degree in the Auditorium on May 1, plans for which are progressing favorably.

Feb. 21 is the date set for the annual assembly dinner. The following were appointed a committee to make all necessary arrangements: William H. Gallagher, Edward E. Saunders, Henry H. Warren, George O'Malley, William Rogers, George H. O'Neill, Joseph A. Desrosiers, Albert B. O'Brien, John J. Langan and M. L. Quinn.

J. Walter McKenna, Joseph A. Desrosiers and George H. O'Neill were appointed patrons.

CORDIAL RECEPTION TO NEW PASTOR
Rev. Lewis B. Shields, newly ordered pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was welcomed to a cordial reception last evening in the church office by the members of the Grace Bible class. Supper was served in the society by the William Woods, with Mrs. J. M. McQuinn, and Mrs. L. J. Quinn. J. M. McQuinn, president and secretary respectively, in charge. An excellent entertainment followed supper.

William Clark, president of the class, welcomed the new pastor in a few well chosen words. Thomas Lees acted as toastmaster; Rev. J. Paul Speed of the Westminster Presbyterian church and Senior Elder Robert Blair of the First Presbyterian church were invited to speak. Community singing followed; there were excellent readings by Miss Catherine Graham and songs by Mr. Clough. Patriotic songs closed the evening's program.

The committee handling the reception and entertainment included: William Clark, president; Allan Angus, vice president; Hugh Watt, treasurer; Allan R. Kirkland, secretary; and Thomas Lees.

UNCONTESTED DIVORCES

ARE GRANTED HERE

Nineteen uncontested divorce cases were heard by Judge Nelson P. Brown in superior court yesterday. Decision was not made public in a few of the cases. Today several cases originally listed as contested were transferred to the uncontested list and heard in the morning session, the court then proceeding to contested cases. The first list on call proved the most interesting of a drab calendar yesterday. Anna V. Buck of Lexington was granted a decree from her husband, George W. Buck. Her husband originally charged cruel and abusive treatment, but was amended to substitute a statutory charge. The decree was granted on the latter grounds. Mrs. Buck testified that her husband was a Boston attorney making about $6000 a year from his practice.

He failed to contest her charges that he had consorted with an unnamed courtesan as man and wife at the Hotel Rensselaer, Worcester. By changing the libel it was unnecessary to subject the children of the parties to examination to prove cruel and abusive treatment.

NEWEST AIRPLANE RIVALS BIRD IN FLIGHT

Here is the Perry Helicopter, recently completed at Lombard, Ill. During a recent flight it lifted 3500 pounds of dead weight directly off the ground straight up into the air. It has two pairs of wings superimposed one above the other and revolving in opposite directions. The wings have a spread of 44 feet. It is said the craft can rise or land in a ground space of 100 feet and can fly sideways or hover in the air like a bird.

THIS LITTLE WORLD

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Gratitude is not dead. Bread cast upon the waters does return. For instance: A dignified southern gentleman, now in Washington, driving on the alley in his garage the other evening found a fellow-auntist in trouble. That the man in distress was colored made no difference to our southern Samaritan. It was enough that his engine wouldn't start. So he proffered his services. Together they traced through the trouble, fixed it and got the car going. The colored driver, profusely grateful, but with a slightly apologetic, even hesitant manner, inquired: "Boss, does yo' ever take a little drink?" "Well, I have been known to," I was just startin' out to make a few deliveries, and I sure would be proud if yo' kept a little bottle of corn likker, wif my compliments. An' any time yo' happens to want me—where more difficult than in public life. But in this, Gen. Herbert M. Lord, director of Uncle Sam's budget, Washington presents one man who does it. Lord not only keeps the budget for the government, he keeps a personal one for his own domestic establishment. An outline of a proper domestic budget system, Lord says, might run about like this:

First deduct from the annual salary 10 per cent. for savings, plus an amount sufficient to cover income tax payments. (You see, Lord can't forget that Uncle Sam simply must have his.) Divide the balance into five equal parts for food, shelter, clothing, operating expenses and development. Apportion these over the year—and keep within them every week. "Operating expenses" covers such items as fuel and lighting, servants, water, repairs and furnishings. "Development" includes church contributions, benevolences, club dues, medical bills, entertainment, etc.

To make the capital safe for congress, Washington wants more women on its police force. They can best cope with the social situations that undermine morals in all large capitals. It is contended. But getting men is a snap compared with finding women eligible for Washington's force. A simple test in writing, spelling, arithmetic and physique turns the trick for the male applicant. But the woman who wishes to help police the city must show that she has:

1—Graduated from a four-year course of a standard high school, or—
2—Completed at least 14 college entrance units of study, or—
3—Graduated from a recognized school for trained nurses, requiring at least two years' hospital residence. Besides, she must show at least two years' experience in systematic social service or educational work or in commercial work involving public contacts.

Your Health
by Dr. C.C. Robinson
A NEW HEALTH CURE
There are about 100,000,000 of this cure in the United States. A leading automobile official is authority for the statement, that after a careful investigation, it had been found that the automobile is the cause for an increased lease on life.
In 1905, according to this official, the average life span in the United States was only 37.5 years. It has jumped to 45.5 years. In this connection it is interesting to note that in 1903 there were only 10,000 automobiles in the United States. In 1913 when motor cars had increased to 1,461,000, the life span of the average person had advanced to 41.5 years. In the last ten years the motor car population has jumped to 1,000,000 and the national life expectancy has risen 7.5 years. This would seem to indicate that the automobile is actually making life longer and happier. In automobile reasoning.

Now comes Dr. Charles H. Mayo of Rochester, Minn., who states that cleanliness and intelligence are the great aids in avoiding infection and lengthening life. The boy of this age has 12 more years coming to him than his grandfather did. Five more years could be added if every man and woman would undergo a rigid health examination when 40 years of age, and follow health rules.

Dr. James B. Hensley of Seattle says that medical science has advanced the span of life at least ten years during the last quarter century.
From the foregoing, it would be a matter of choice to drive the cause for increased longevity. If a large number who ride in automobiles don't worry too much about the upkeep and where the money is coming from to

But if you are fair, fat and forty, look out for trouble. If automobile riding is all the health exercise you take.

NEW TRAFFIC RULES

The recommendations of Supr. Atkinson of the police department and Traffic Supervisor Edward Connors, for the relief of traffic conditions in the downtown district have many excellent points that if carried into effect would result in a great improvement and very much increased convenience to the public.

One of the chief troubles, however, is that it is very difficult to have any system of traffic rules properly observed. It seems that either through ignorance or disregard of rules, the people will park their autos in forbidden places and leave them there for indefinite periods, despite the fact that by so doing they obstruct the free movement of traffic and sometimes cause complete blockades in which scores of vehicles are held for several minutes. This can be prevented by proper regulations strictly enforced. The recommendations made by Supr. Atkinson and Traffic Officer Connors, if put in operation will probably afford relief from much of the traffic congestion complained of in the downtown district.

If the recommendations either in their present form or slightly modified, are embodied in an ordinance and strictly enforced there will not be so much need for new streets and thoroughfares as is generally supposed. There will probably be a kick against the proposal to have no car stops on Merrimack street between Kearney square and Dutton street and on Central between Merrimack street and Tower's corner. That might be inconvenient for some and it remains to be determined whether the rule should be less stringent or whether it should apply only to certain days or certain hours of the day. But in whatever form the new rules be adopted, the perverse auto drivers and the people who park their autos regardless of regulations will have to be taught a lesson in the observance of traffic laws. No such regulations can be effectively enforced unless a proper penalty be provided for their violation. If remains for the city council to put teeth in this traffic ordinance and once it shall have been put in operation, the general public should co-operate with the police in its enforcement.

SONS OF DARTMOUTH

President Ernest M. Hopkins announces that it is his desire to have Dartmouth college "continue free from convention and standardization." This desire must surely be gratified when one looks over the statistics of the class of 1923, which matriculated at Hanover last month.

Dartmouth's stout-hearted tradition of long standing to be a "national college" in fact as well as name may be approaching realization. We are told that while the New England group of states naturally leads in the number of homes of freshmen which it includes, less than one-half of the class of 1923 are from this part of the country and only a few more from the middle Atlantic states, while the south, central states, Rocky Mountain region and the Pacific coast are all well represented.

Of course the young men who travel a long distance to enter college have a distinct influence on the college spirit, for they don't travel a thousand miles, as a rule, just to accompany a chum or to go to college for the fun of the thing.

President Hopkins deduces some facts in connection with the Dartmouth college of today, that are also interesting. When the Hanover college institution finally achieved its aristocracy of brains, it is not likely to be one of indifference, for of these 535 new Dartmouth men this year, only 27 are sons of Dartmouth graduates, with 112 others the sons of graduates from seventy-two other colleges of the land. Ninety, less than one-quarter of the new entrance class has an inheritance of college traditions.

Although almost every profession, occupation and honorable means of livelihood is represented among the fathers of the freshmen, the Concord Monitor expresses sorrow in being compelled to report that only from newspaper have come the sons of the new group this year. The Monitor thinks this is equally to be regretted whether it arises from the fact that newspapermen cannot afford to send their sons to college, or from ignorance on the part of the journalistic fraternity of the advantages of the Hanover institution.

We take exception to this last statement. We believe the journalistic profession in New England and even to be a high regard for old Dartmouth and her traditions. There are prominent newspapermen and lawyers, a Lowell who are proud to call Dartmouth their alma mater. If Dartmouth follow her old time convention and accept the new department that offers the dangers of modernism, for times as an educational institution will be secure.

THE CAPE CANAL

Another attempt will be made to have congress authorize the purchase of the Cape Cod canal. The bill for the purpose failed in the last congress but that has not discouraged the advocates of the project. The canal is a necessity to the commerce of New England. It is a well known fact that the number of vessels coming from New England will favor the purchase by the federal government. It is estimated that government ownership and operation of the canal would greatly facilitate the transportation of coal to Boston and other ports of New England. The canal is an essential link in the plan of the coastal waterways system advocated by the Cooper Waterways association which, however, is still regarded as a visionary undertaking. The Cape Cod canal, however, is a reality and the United States is in the canal business and controlling coastal and even internal waterways should have direct control and ownership of the Cape Cod canal.

The canal is in need of repair and this may explain why it is not more freely used. Under federal ownership the canal could be dredged and kept maintained in safe and passable condition.

Acted Very Rude

When Ethel went out to visit her friend one evening she found her mother miserable. "What's the matter, Lily?" she asked. Lily's face grew longer than ever as she answered between sobs. "I've broken off my engagement with Jack," she sobbed. "I'm sure," said Ethel, "that you are. It is certain to come out, and I'll tell it up with you before long." "I don't think so," replied Lily. "You won't write him and tell him never to see me or write to me again. And," she added vehemently, "he hasn't even been nice enough to answer my letter."—New York Sun.

Slight Misunderstanding

The comedy cinema actor stopped a man he knew. "Look here," he began. "I understand you said last night that I had no sense of humor. A remark of that kind, made public, in the presence of other people is very damaging to a man in my line. And you," "I don't care," interrupted the other. "I never said you had no sense of humor. What I said was that you had no sense of honor." "Ah!" beamed the actor. "I thought there must be some mistake. I felt certain you would never run down a pal behind his back."

Couldn't Tell the Truth

A young fellow, the son of a quite a wealthy man, was engaged in a clerical capacity by a friend of his father in order to try and make something of him. He was, however, shiftless to the last degree, and nothing he said could be relied upon. One day his employer called him into his private office and gave him a round reprimand for the delay on his re-education, and wound up by saying: "You know, James, that you are always lying." "Sir," said James, "I would have you remember that I am a re-educand." "There you go again," said his employer.

"Far to Admire"

Traveler, traveler, you have seen Italy's hills and dales. What will become of the Florentine? If ever Fascismo fails? Listen to this at a place in Rome. "They had the nerve to show a Fairbanks film that we saw at home." At least two years ago.

Traveler, traveler, set us right. How do the English feel? Are they indeed in a mood to fight? Over Austria's steep? Say, I met a man by the name of Brown. That I worked with at Saint Paul. In a little hotel in a bun Scotch town. It's a small one, but after all.

Standard King in Life

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN
William Hart, popular resident of Centralville and employed in a local textile concern, wrote his last will and testament, just before the fun of it, as the goods were being shipped from his factory. A few days ago he received a letter signed "Shirley Mason, moving picture actress," saying that she had received the cloth and noticed the name stamped upon it. Now "Bill" is all "hot up" over the affair, but his friends are telling him he is the victim of a joke. Can't make him believe it, though.

A fine spirit of appreciation was shown by the parishioners of St. John's Mission, Chelmsford, last Sunday morning, when William E. Belleville, on behalf of the people of the parish, presented Rev. Francis J. Kenney a suitably engraved watch in token of their esteem for his services in the past year and a half. In that brief space of time, Fr. Kenney had endeavored himself to the people of Chelmsford and it was with sincere regret that the announcement of his transfer to South Boston was received. With Fr. Kenney goes the best wishes of everyone who knew him.

With rhythmic throbbing of tom-toms and staccato twirling of feather-bedecked warriors in the sacred robes peculiar to the Penobscot tribe of Indians, Howard L. Mitchell, lately clerk in the office of the Organized Beggar, in this city, was welcomed back to his tribal lands, according to a letter received here today. He states that it is the custom for the tribe to hold a big pow-wow when one of its members returns after an absence of three years, and as "Mitch" has now been away for five years an orgy lasting for 48 hours, and participated in by every stalwart brave, dusky squaw and her papoose, filled the air with sounds of cheering over the return of the young redskin to the native wigwam. Chief Big Thunder, leader of the tribe, is a strict adherent of the Volsteadian principles, however, due to the large amount of wampum necessary these days to procure a swig of breasted and therefore, the police people in nearby barbers were spared from the terror of a mobster.

Mr. Mitchell's mission also contains an account of his hunting trip, when he was shot and wounded by a bear in the mountains. He was then taken to the hospital and after a long stay he was discharged. He is now in the city and is expected to be in the city for some time.

CONGRESSMAN ROGERS MEN'S CLUB GUEST
Congressman John Jacob Rogers was the principal guest and speaker at a banquet supper and entertainment provided by the Men's club of the Central Congregational church in Chelmsford last evening. It was an auspicious occasion for the fall and winter club activities. Supper was served at 6:30 o'clock. A feature of the program was the singing of old-time songs by all present. Joseph Westhead led the chorus.

Congressman Rogers, warmly welcomed, presented his views on present international relations, pointing out some of the world problems to be met by the United States government and explaining some of the phases of the plan sponsored by the late President Harding. The congressman also outlined his audience with numerous stories gleaned from casual journeys into national political fields.

John McMaster was chairman of the evening's gathering, ably assisted by Edmund H. Clark, William Seabie, Roger Boyd, Sidney E. Dupee, Lester E. Alden and Leicester Smith.

BOY SCOUT TROOP AT BARTLETT SCHOOL
Progress in the organization of a Boy Scout troop at the Bartlett school was made last night at a meeting held in the school with 18 scouts present. A preliminary survey of the knowledge of scouting possessed by the members, revealed that these are already tenderfoot scouts and two are second class scouts. The five boys with these advanced ratings are James Demas, Kilburn Fulton and Richard Forsley, ten-year-olds, and Francis Aldo and John Hartington, second class scouts.

Joseph Duffy, physical instructor of the school and coach of the junior high school football team, will act as scoutmaster permanently, and for the present John Lambert, Jr., will act as assistant scoutmaster. The latter is the senior patrol leader or Troop 10, of St. Anne's church. He addressed the boys last night, telling them more clearly of just what the scout movement means, and explained in detail the organization in a troop. He laid special stress on the importance of living up to the scout oath and laws.

Berton Braley's Daily Poem

THE OUTCAST

I guess I'm a musical moron,
For somehow or other I find
That classical stuff doesn't score on
My bourgeois and commonplace mind;
Beethoven and Mozart and most of
The masters don't thrill me a bit;
It isn't a thing that I boast of,
But something I have to admit.

I've tried to improve; I have listened
To concerts, and struggled to learn
Why eyes of the audience glistened
With pleasure, I failed to discern
Whatever it was that enraptured
Their spirit, and caused them to glow;
So now I just take it for granted
I'm stupid and never will know.

Yet when from the saxophones issue
The accents of Kern or Berlin,
I find every fiber and tissue
Is tingling in time; I begin
To sway to the strange syncopation
Though classical music falls flat.
What, YOU'RE in the same situation?
Oh well, let's just leave it at that!

SILVER FOX FARMS IN
MIDDLESEX COUNTY

Middlesex county silver foxes—some of them worth $3,000 apiece right now—are coming into their own at last. The "silvers" are no longer scarce in New England—not the farm-bred kind, anyhow.

Announcements covering the program of the coming silver-fox show scheduled for Mechanics building, Boston, Dec. 12, 13 and 14, under the auspices of the American Fox Breeders' association, is of interest to sportsmen in this vicinity, for silver fox farms are now becoming somewhat common in several rural neighborhoods in old Middlesex county.

J. Howard Pillman, of the wholesale grocery house of Pillman & Deane, formerly located at 547 Central street, was the original silver fox farmer to win attention in this immediate vicinity. He started raising the valuable furry quadrupeds on a sheltered section of the now abandoned Shaker Village community in the town of Harvard, near Ayer Junction, and has made a huge success of the venture thus far, and also attracting much attention from the silver fox breeding world at large since he helped to organize the Breeders' association three years ago.

Today, as a result of the early endeavors of Mr. Pillman, numerous Bay State citizens, including a physician or two, one banker and several farmers, all good sportsmen with the silver fox fever in their veins, have prosperous breeding farms not very far from Lowell, where visitors go regularly to see the fruits of the unusual breeding game and inspect living specimens of splendidly beautiful and rare fur-bearing animals that run in values up to several thousand dollars a "pair."

Among the most successful breeders now flourishing in Middlesex county is E. C. Pond of Lexington, A. W. Moulton of Concord, J. Howard Pillman, now a resident of Ayer Junction, Harry and Robert Prescott of near-by Westford town, also T. A. McCarthy of Haverhill.

Mr. Pillman, a charter member of the three-year-old American Fox Breeders' association, is an enthusiast who has made good. At the present time he has a plot of old farmland good for nothing else but raising silver foxes, apparently. It is located on the old Littleton road running out of Ayer Junction, beyond the "beech section." On these farmlands owned by Mr. Pillman, there are today more than 60 all-silver foxes, young and old, with a breeding reputation second to none. Prices today range from $300 to more than $3,000, according to selected stock of the registered, pure-bred brand.

The Prescott farms in Westford are lively with silver fox runs on acres just right for harboring them and providing healthy sites for breeding places.

There is much money in selling good early breed selections. The Pillman farm sent away only this week two foxes that sold for $800 apiece. Both are registered and pedigreed way up to the top line, which assists in quick sales for clear specimens of good, vigorous breeding qualities, now greatly desired by the promoters of new farms in many parts of North America.

The Lowell business man captured blue ribbons with his "first flocks" at the Nov. show of the American Fox Breeders' association held in Boston in 1919. "Kaiser" was the champion of the show at that time and many good ones have descended from this prize-winner since that time on the Pillman farm.

HOCKEY TOURNAMENT

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.—An inter-city field hockey tournament to determine the makeup of the All-United States team which will compete in the international tournament in England next February will start here on Nov. 27. Final arrangements as announced today show entries from New York, Boston, Baltimore, Chicago, Philadelphia and a "pick-up" team composed of players from a number of cities.

AT ASSOCIATE HALL

If you would like to enjoy a most pleasant evening the opportunity is afforded at Associate hall tonight when Joe Hibbard will stage an old-time "Tinners" dancing party with all the old popular numbers being featured. Some of the numbers will bring back many a happy memory of the past. The pleasant memories and recollections of O'Brien as bridesmaid, Catherine "mother and father" and the parents of today will not only be entertained by the old music, but also by the witnessing of the dances of yesteryear. It will be worth your while to attend the party tomorrow night at the hall. This organization has a large membership and no doubt the affair will be a huge success. Hibbard's orchestra will furnish the music.

FRIENDS HONOR MISS SMITH

A very pretty shower was tendered Miss Doris Rita Smith, daughter of Mrs. E. Smith, of 17 Deland street, on Monday evening, Nov. 14, at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Kelley, of 13 Blithorn avenue. A mock marriage was performed, Miss Gertrude Shaughnessy acting as minister, Gertrude O'Brien as bridesmaid, Catherine "mother and father" and the parents of today will not only be entertained by the old music, but also by the witnessing of the dances of yesteryear. It will be worth your while to attend the party tomorrow night at the hall. This organization has a large membership and no doubt the affair will be a huge success. Hibbard's orchestra will furnish the music.

Nurse Stacey's Suggestions to
Middle Aged Women

MRS. H. STACEY
COLLINSVILLE, ILLINOIS

A MOST trying period of a woman's life is that of middle age, fraught with danger to some extent, and invariably with most annoying symptoms, such as hot-flashes, smothering spells, nervous troubles, irregularities and fainting spells.

When a woman like Nurse Stacey after many years of caring for the sick writes a letter of praise for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound like the following, it should influence other women who are passing through the Change of Life to try it.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a root and herb medicine especially adapted to act upon the feminine system. It helps nature to build up the weakened, nervous system, and enables women to pass this trying period with the least possible annoying symptoms.

Nurse Stacey's Letter Follows:

COLLINSVILLE, ILL.—"I could almost write a book in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In the first place my husband induced me to try it and I have continued taking it off and on for years. I have become a well woman from its use and am now taking it through the Change of Life just to be on the safe side. I first took it for backache and a weak condition of the whole system and I think it saved my life and my baby. She is now a mother and takes it herself and I think I can count as high as a hundred women I have recommended the Vegetable Compound to, as I am a practical nurse. Use my letter in any way you see fit for I will stand by what I write."—Mrs. H. STACEY, Collinsville, Illinois.

Another Woman's Similar Experience

"During the Change of Life I was always tired and weak, could hardly do my work and did not care to go anywhere or talk to people. After I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I noticed a change and before I had taken four bottles of it I felt like a new person. I can and always will recommend it in cases like mine."—Mrs. Jos. WANISH, 1119 S. 18th St., Manitowish, Wisconsin.

Mrs. Brainerd Broadcasts
Her Views on Cooking

Corn Products Refining Co.,
New York

Gentlemen:—

I THINK I can best explain some of my reasons for preferring Mazola instead of any other shortening in cooking, by giving a practical demonstration on paper of a simple luncheon menu which I have used many times in my house, and as you will see Mazola is used in each article served.

Fish Chowder	Salted Almonds
Fruit Salad	Chocolate Mocha Pie
Oatmeal Muffins	Cocoanut Fudge

For fish, clam or corn chowder, I cover the bottom of the kettle with Mazola oil. When hot, drop in thinly sliced onions, cook until light brown, then add the other ingredients as for any chowder.

I prefer Mazola to pork fat in chowders. For fruit salad I pour French dressing made with Mazola on the fruit, and for a garnish use big spoonfuls of Mazola-mayonnaise.

My oatmeal muffins have a tablespoon of Mazola to each cup of flour.

FOR my almonds after blanching I put in a bowl and pour Mazola over them, stir until well-coated, bake in a flat pan until brown, then turn on to a clean cloth and rub until dry.

For my cake pie I use Mazola for shortening the cake and make the mocha frosting in the usual way only substituting Mazola for one-half of the butter for smoothness as well as economy.

In my cocoanut fudge I also use half Mazola and half butter.

Mazola is a great time saver at breakfast, as gems and griddle cakes, also blueberry muffins can be made much quicker, and the griddles are much more digestible if fried in Mazola.

To sum it all up, Mazola is the purest, most wholesome, most economical and quickest aid in cooking of any shortening, and am pleased to broadcast my views which I have had ever since I opened my first can, years ago. Have always recommended it in my limited field of personal friends.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Grace K. Brainerd,

MALLORY OF YALE AND PFAITMAN OF HARVARD CLASSY DROP KICKERS

Both Have Shown Unerring Accuracy Under Fire—
Other Good Kickers on Rival Teams—All Seats
for Army-Navy Game Sold—100,000 Disappointed

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Harvard and Yale both will enter their traditional struggle next Saturday on the Crimson's gridiron with dependable line artists available for scoring purposes.

Memphis' Bill Mallory, basketball coach and former professional line machine and Karl Pfaffman, college of Princeton expert, rank among the best drop kickers of the season in the east. Both have shown terrific accuracy and both are expected to play in filling the piazza over the centers at varying angles and distances.

Pfaffman, whose drop kick gave Harvard the points that produced Yale's first victory in the fortnight ago, has been noted for several seasons as a specialist, but Mallory's rise to fame in this department has been one of the surprises of the season.

Both teams went through stiff practice sessions yesterday.

Round Prices In Theatres

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—So much indignation has been expressed by Army and Navy officials at the proposed football game between the two services, which is to be played by Broadway between the two services next Saturday night, the day on which the Army and Navy meet at the Polo Grounds in their annual football game, that it is believed the game will not be played in this city again.

Prices for orchestra seats in 23 the city's largest theatres have been revealed, for they have been boosted from ten cents to $2. Two 55.50 places increased to $7. The investigation was instituted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Wilson of Annapolis, who communicated his reports to Brig. Gen. Slatton, commander at West Point.

Washington, Nov. 21.—The football game between the Army and Navy, which is to be played at the Polo Grounds next Saturday night, is believed to be the last of its kind in this city.

Speeders Act as Traffic Cops Instead of Paying Fines

A TRAFFIC VIOLATOR SERVING AS A TRAFFIC POLICEMAN IN KANSAS CITY, KAN., AND JUDGE H. S. ROBERTS (INSET), WHO ASSIGNED HIM TO THE JOB.

By N.E.A. Service
KANSAS CITY, Kas., Nov. 20.—Traffic offenders serving as traffic policemen: A bit unusual to be sure. Yet they are doing it here.

For Police Judge H. S. Roberts is converting reckless drivers into careful drivers by teaching them the policeman's side of it.

Instead of fining or jailing traffic-law violators, Judge Roberts is sending them to school. Persons convicted in his court, are required to attend classes so many nights.

The traffic code is studied, and lessons are given in careful driving. Pupils are required to become perfect in the city ordinance before they are "graduated" and permitted to resume driving.

And a part of the course is traffic recitation. Offenders are required to go to busy downtown corners and handle vehicular and pedestrian traffic for periods ranging from half an hour to an hour.

Seeing the danger of speeding, "cutting in" and other forms of careless driving gives Judge Roberts' pupils a new conception on the order of things.

"Listen me," says one young man who has just finished his course, "I'm going to help the police all I can in the future."

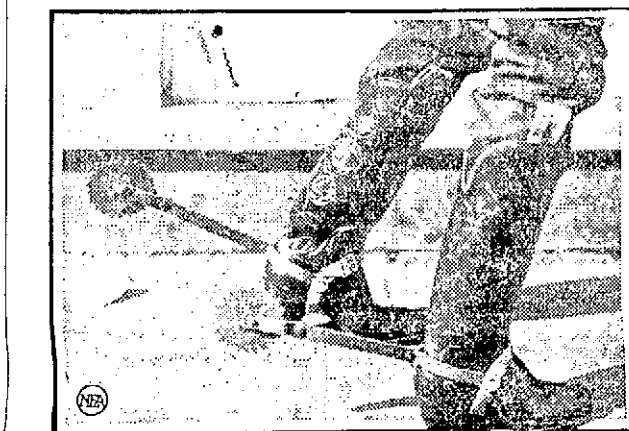

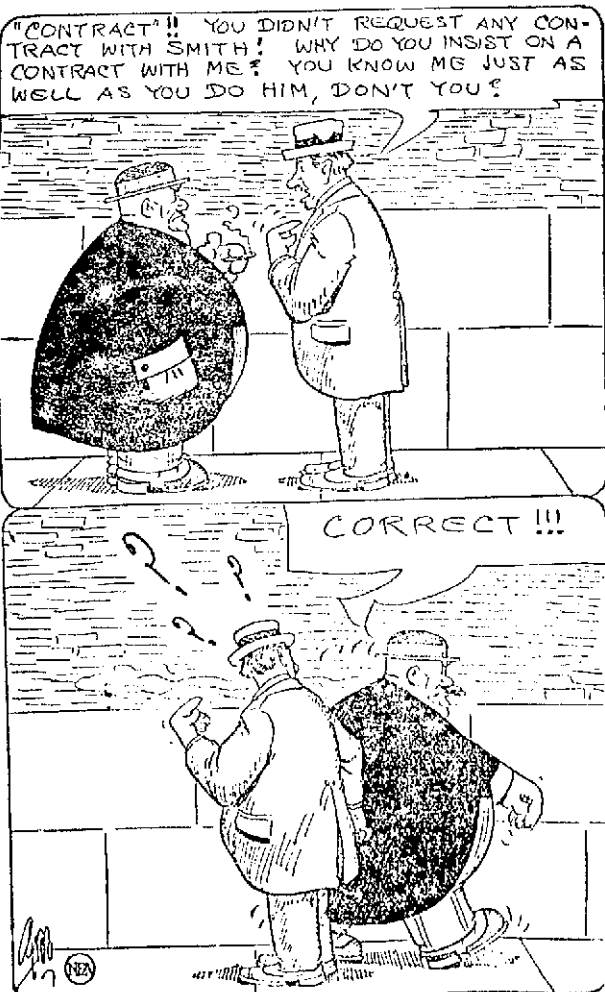

"Hereafter, I'll drive slowly and carefully at all times. I learned a lot out there on that corner. And paying a fine wouldn't have taught me half as much."

So their friends and hangers-on won't look at his pupils. Judge Roberts always arranges to have policemen on hand on the corners where the fellows are "doing time."

WALTON STILL IN FIGHT INVESTIGATION OF ALL DOCTORS IN NEW YORK

Deposed* Executive Says
"Only Rats Leave a Ship in Distress"

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 20.—(By the Associated Press.) A statement reiterating his determination to continue the fight was issued here today by J. C. Walton, who was removed from office as governor last night by a senate court of impeachment.

"Only the rats leave a ship in distress," the deposed executive asserted. "A few have deserted me in this fight and the ship is not sinking. It is only the shadow they see in the water."

"Time is the test of truth," the statement asserted. "It will decide whether I am right or wrong. It answers to me that the will of the majority of the two and one-half million people expressed at the polls last November has been set at naught and nullified by a minority of a scant 41 acting in obedience to no law, and without inquiry at the command, not of justice, but of the 'invisible empire.'"

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 20.—Frederick Schleffer, labor leader, convicted by a jury last week of inciting to violence in an address before a meeting of striking seamen of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, a year ago, was sentenced to state prison for not less than three and one-half years nor more than five years today.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Aroused by the situation in Connecticut, where the alleged sale of bogus medical diplomas is under investigation by an extraordinary grand jury, the board of health today began an investigation of every practicing physician in Greater New York.

Dr. Frank J. Monaghan, health commissioner, said the investigation would cover every borough. There are nearly 12,000 physicians practicing here. Any physician found to be practicing without the required training under the New York state laws will be referred to the New York county medical society for possible action.

CAUGHT UNLOADING CARGO OF ALCOHOL

TRAVERLY, Nov. 20.—William J. Sullivan of Salem was arrested early this morning at West beach by Boston police charged with violation of the liquor law. With eleven other men he was apprehended while unloading a boat loaded with 141 cases of alcohol amounting to about 60 gallons, onto a large motor truck at Bradshaw's wharf.

Patrolman Warren Adams heard the noise went to the scene and held up the whole party until reinforcements arrived from the Beverly police station. Sullivan was fined $500. He is married by his brother, Michael J. Sullivan of Salem, known in sporting circles as "Subbie."

UNITED THIRD PARTY TO PRESENT NEW TREATIES

Object of Series of Conference, the First of Which Opens in Omaha Today

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 20.—Unification of various independent political elements into a united party to run its candidates in opposition to the major parties in the 1924 political campaign is the object of a series of conferences, the first of which starts here this afternoon.

Asserting that political elements that favor a new party movement are loosely knit, Roy M. Harrop of Omaha, temporary chairman of the progressive party who called the conference, said that when Henry Ford, the Detroit manufacturer, says that a third party had been built up, he would very likely accept nomination as its candidate for president. If Mr. Ford failed to accept, however, the party would turn to someone else for leadership.

OPERATION OF ALLEGED "FAKE DIPLOMA" MILL

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 20.—Examination of Harry T. Brundage, a newspaperman of St. Louis, who brought to this state a mass of information uncovered in St. Louis which was held before Gov. Charles A. Templeton and State's Attorney Hugh H. Alderman of Hartford county, was expected to be resumed when the grand jury, summoned by order of Judge John P. Kellogg of the superior court, at the behest of Mr. Alderman, acting under instructions from the governor, took up again today the probe into the alleged conspiracy by which it is charged, many persons secured licenses to practice medicine in this state, through the operation of an alleged "fake diploma" mill.

The possibility that members of the grand jury would be delegated to go to Missouri to investigate the ends of the probe in that state, had no official confirmation.

Harding World Court Proposal is Already Before Senate

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Presentation to the senate of several new treaties for whose reception arrangements have already been made by President Coolidge and Secretary Hughes with chairman Lodge of the senate foreign relations committee will be added to the legislative burden of the coming congress.

With the Harding proposal for American participation in the World court already before the senate the new treaties which are to be transmitted to the senate upon its reconvening, include: The treaty of Commerce between the United States and Turkey, re-establishing relations with Turkey and containing capitulations governing commercial as well as diplomatic intercourse.

The Mexican treaty which paved the way for recognition by the United States of the Obregon government and provides for protection of American property rights in Mexico, as negotiated by John Barton Payne and Chas. R. Warren, special envoys of President Harding.

Local Rotarians Addressed by District Governor Sullivan of Fall River

Dan Sullivan, of Fall River, district governor of the International Rotary clubs, addressed the local club yesterday in the course of a tour he is making among the clubs under his jurisdiction. Mr. Sullivan has visited 23 clubs so far in his trip, and the subject on which he is addressing them is an explanation of the work that is being done by the headquarters of the organization, in keeping the wheels of its machinery running smoothly, and also in distributing to the various clubs, literature, suggestions and information on various activities which the clubs may consider as the purpose in view of taking an active interest therein, as the local Rotarians have the "Boys' club." He also explained at some length about the annual conference which is to be held at Toronto, Canada, on June 16 of next year.

GERMANY CANNOT FEED 15,000,000

BERLIN, Nov. 20.—Experts estimate that the German republic can feed three-fourths of its population without importing food; in other words, Germany has at least 15,000,000 more people than she can sustain. This estimate, however, is based on a greatly reduced per capita consumption. It also contemplates the use of nearly all the rye's barley for food and none of it for the brewing of beer.

Even with the import of table luxuries forbidden, the money Germany has available for food is far below the actual needs of the people and is sinking daily.

NEW TRAFFIC ORDINANCE REFERRED TO ORDINANCE COMMITTEE

Councilor McPadden Suggested a Public Hearing on the Ordinance and the Council Favored the Recommendation—Report of Last Evening's Meeting

At the meeting of the city council last night the report of the public safety committee, James P. Hennessey, chairman, in regard to the proposed traffic ordinance was referred to the ordinance committee. Councilor John J. McPadden, chairman of the ordinance committee, recommended that a public hearing on the proposed traffic ordinance be given next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The council favored the recommendation and instructed the city clerk to give notice to that effect. The proposed traffic ordinance is the one drawn up by Chief of Police Thomas R. Atkinson and Traffic Supervisor Edward Connors and submitted to the public safety committee last Monday.

Last night's meeting of the council was given over mainly to routine matters. The meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock by President James J. Gallagher. All members were present. Councilor Chaffin making his first appearance in the council chamber since he was injured in an automobile accident late last summer.

A conference scheduled for last night with Vice-President Prichard of the Lowell Gas Light company was postponed at the latter's request until Dec. 4. Hearings were held on petitions for pole locations by the Lowell Electric Light Corporation and the public service board. Petitions for garages and for the storage of gasoline were referred to the chief of the fire department. Hearings on new petitions for pole locations and additional attachments to present poles were set for Dec. 4. Claims for personal injuries were referred to the claim committee and the city solicitor.

The report of the city solicitor concerning his protest to the public utilities commission concerning a proposed increase in the price of communication tickets was filed. On recommendation of the chief of the fire department the following cause licenses were issued: Thomas Adams, 231 Smith street; Eugene Stilling, 51 Crescent street; William A. Higgins, 41 Sheldon street; Isadore Mohlan, 51 Chelmsford st.; Patrick P. Mahoney, 953 Central street; M. P. Reese, 1 rear 65 Chapel street; M. K. Wright, 18 Summer street; John Kelly, 147 Cornhill street.

A formal request from the school committee for a site or sites for a new school in the Edison district was read and referred to the committee on public property. Embodied in the request was the suggestion that a plot of land 18,000 to 20,000 square feet would be necessary if the site was on the South common and nearly twice that size if a site away from the common be chosen. The school committee recommended that a site on the common be chosen.

A communication from Benjamin Loring Young, speaker of the house of the general court of Massachusetts, in which he informed the city council that year to have the list of bills to be presented at the coming session printed two weeks prior to the opening of the session, was read. President Gallagher urged the members of the council who might have legislative matters in mind to keep this matter in mind.

The city solicitor was instructed to represent the council at the superior court hearing in connection with the seizure of land for the Oakland street house.

Councilor Hennessey, chairman of the public property committee, reported on the recent meeting of his committee with a board of architects to decide upon the future of the Durkas house. He requested for the architects that additional time be granted for the work and that the buildings department be instructed to board up the windows and doors of the house to protect it during the coming winter.

The delay in the erection of additional electric lights on the Lombard street bridges, as voted at the council recently, was criticized by Councilor McPadden and he suggested that a police officer be detailed to that bridge from the hour of sunset until midnight until such time as the lights are installed. A representative of the Lowell Electric Light Corp. was present and stated that he would see that the installation was hurried.

Councilor Fitzgerald inquired concerning the matter of changing the hours that the polling booths are open on election day. The city clerk was instructed to communicate with the state authorities to ascertain if the election commission may change the hours for the coming election.

The meeting adjourned at 9:30 p. m. until Dec. 4.

In an attempt to relieve traffic congestion that is mainly caused by motor vehicle traffic.

Mr. McCormick stated that he was never so surprised at anything as he was at reading the recommendation of Supt. Atkinson, because in the past the street railway company has incurred an expense of over $12,000 in constructing Brookings street and John street loops to relieve congestion in the square and had also followed the suggestions of Traffic Supervisor Edward Connors in changing the location of white poles away from points where they would be likely to interfere with traffic.

"You might just as well draw a circle half-a-mile from the square and say 'electric cars cannot enter this zone,' this is reserved for automobiles," said Mr. McCormick, "yet for every passenger carried in a motor vehicle we carry 20 or 30, but we are the ones who are chosen by the police superintendent to bear the onus of traffic congestion."

"I strongly object to that portion of the ordinance recommendations providing that street cars be forbidden to stop between Towers' corner and the square and Dutton street and the square. We have co-operated with the police department at all times with reference to eliminating car stops in the business section of the city and we have never refused to adopt any suggestion advanced by Traffic Supervisor Edward Connors or Chief Atkinson that would in any way relieve traffic congestion. At the present time we have only two stops between Towers' corner and the square and Dutton street and the square and it would be a real hardship and an injustice to our car riders if it were made compulsory for them to be carried to the square and not permitted to leave the cars at any point between the above mentioned places. This would be particularly true in stormy weather because it would make a car-ride to the square and street walk approximately one-quarter of a mile."

"I believe the street railway company has done its share in reducing traffic congestion by expending approximately $12,000 in the construction of the Brookings street loop and the loop from Merrimack street to John street. The use of these loops has removed about the cars a day from the square. It would seem to me that the best way to relieve congestion would be to eliminate parking on Central and Merrimack streets in the above referred to areas."

Mr. McCormick also suggested that during the Christmas shopping rush that automobiles be left at home and the street cars used by shoppers to

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Irene Castle wants to move her supply of liquor, valued at several thousand dollars, from her former home in Hibernia, N. Y., to her residence here. She made application for the transfer yesterday to Prohibition Director Canfield, but refused to discuss her "cellar."

Officials said the regulations did not allow them to disclose confidential information relating to such applications because "certain applicants for such transfer permits are of such respectable standing in this community" that they were afraid such disclosures might "shamefully harm them."

TO OPEN WAITING ROOM EAGLES HOLD MEETING

Street Railway Will Have Waiting Room in the
Gallagher Store

Addresses by Mayor of Cambridge, Mayor Donovan and Councilor Gallagher

A waiting room for patrons of the street railway company will be opened in James J. Gallagher's store in the square within a week.

Manager Maurice E. McCormick made this announcement today following a conference with the trustees of the road in which they authorized him to hire part of Gallagher's store at a rental of $100 a month as a temporary waiting room. This was done in accordance with the suggestion of the city council committee appointed to investigate the waiting room situation and the present conditions of four local district betterment associations.

For the convenience of the street railway patrons were built last fall when it was first suggested that a waiting room be located in Gallagher's store and these are now being stained and varnished to match the interior decoration of the store. The temporary change in the agreement is due to the fact that Mr. Gallagher may desire to sell out the store in the near future and if he does so the street railway company will have to get out at the same time.

The waiting room proposition has been before the public for several months and the street railway company's reason for not furnishing one prior to the present time is that rentals in other locations were prohibitive. The rental price of Gallagher's store is about as high as the company's finances will permit and Manager McCormick is grateful to Mr. Gallagher for offering his store on such a temporary basis. The company will not have to stand on the street during the coming winter months.

The case of William A. Gourley of Tenenboro, administrator of the estate of his wife, Rosina K. Gourley, who died in February, 1922, without leaving a will, in which the former petitions for instructions regarding the distribution of the estate valued at $75,000, was continued yesterday afternoon in the probate court before Judge White.

When the action was started Mrs. Myra L'Esperance, of Lowell, a niece of the deceased, and the husband were thought the only claimants, with the exception of two young men, Myron C. and Ross Morrill. They claim to be sons of Charles Battles, a brother of the deceased. Their claim is disputed by Mrs. L'Esperance. It is admitted by the Morrill brothers' lawyers that these two sons were born before Mr. Battles married their mother, who was the wife of another at the time of their birth. The counsel claims that a marriage took place later and that the two boys were acknowledged by Mr. Battles as his sons.

Several claimants declaring themselves distant relatives of the deceased have entered the situation and proceedings were started and all desire to share in the estate.

The case was adjourned last night until Dec. 6. Counsel are William Hogan and James E. Markham for Mr. Gourley; Quin, Howard & Rogers for the Morrill boys; Harvey, Harvey & Walsh for Mrs. L'Esperance.

FORD FOR PRESIDENT MEN MEET IN OMAHA

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 21.—Plans to have the gathering here called by Roy O. Harrop of Omaha, national chairman of the progressive party, announced progressive, farmer-laborites and others of progressive tendencies in a third party movement, have gone glimmering.

Instead, there has come a boom for Henry Ford for president, and the endorsement of the regular progressive party of Nebraska of the principles outlined at a meeting of progressives in Chicago Monday by the group headed by J. A. H. Hopkins of New York. The Henry Ford president men will meet tonight, and more delegates than the representatives of 14 states at last night's meeting are promised. Mr. Harrop says he expects thirty-six states to be represented at today's session.

Liquor Fleet Off Coast

Warrant Officer Tilton of the Sandy Hook coast guards gave chase, all the liquor was reported safely ashore. At least half of it is believed to have been landed by runners from this vicinity.

One of the largest schooners in the rum fleet departed early today, evidently having disposed of her cargo during the night.

The night's success apparently encouraged local runners, for today a number of them were observed tuning up their engines and filling fuel tanks. The weather continued ideal for smuggling.

The liquor ships, the smugglers say, have all sorts of liquor aboard with cargoes largely made up of whiskey and champagne.

FOR POSITION OF CITY PLUMBING INSPECTOR

Eleven applicants, including Joseph Harvey, the present incumbent, took a civil service examination at city hall today for the position of city plumbing inspector working under the board of health. Miss Anna Kelly was the inspector in charge.

As the inspector identifies the applicants only by number it was impossible for her to give out the names of the persons taking the examination.

EDWARD F. QUINN, Mayor of Cambridge

Mr. Hogan, chairman of the entertainment committee, reported a series of winter activities has been planned by his committee. Card parties, to be given regularly throughout the winter months, will commence on Nov. 27. The annual ladies' night will be observed on Dec. 14 and an old timers' concert will be given on Jan. 17 next.

The initiative decree was exemplified on last night's session and fourteen new applications for membership were taken under consideration.

A fine entertainment program was given at the close of the business session. Those participating were Daniel J. McCallahan, John E. Devlin, John Dancannon, Joseph Wedge, Leo Martin, Thomas J. McAndrews, Geo. Hession, Howard Bean and Thomas H. Corcoran.

The committee in charge of the evening's program was: Past President Timothy B. Barry, Worthing Vice President Hugh F. Gallagher, Treasurer David L. Harcourt, Assistant Secretary Paul J. Crowe, Chaplain William A. Sheehan, Conductor E. D. Reardon, J. G. Joseph D. Lamoureux, O. G. John T. Fells, trustees, John J. Driscoll, Richard J. Flynn and William F. Carey, visiting committee, Peter P. Peter, John L. O'Leary, Alfred St. George, David Lemone, George L. Langerville, John F. McCarthy, Thomas F. Quinn, Jr., George M. Shields, James E. Donnelly, Charles C. Schless, Worthing president Thomas F. Quinn and Secretary John M. Hogan.

TODAY'S CASES IN THE DISTRICT COURT

George R. Hartley was sentenced to six months in the house of correction, for drunkenness, by Judge Enright in district court this morning. Officer Louis Leamy, who arrested him last night, stated that he was a source of annoyance to a woman whom he persisted in paying attention to, and that he insulted people and otherwise conducted himself improperly. Hartley appealed the sentence and was ordered to recognize in the sum of $200 for his appearance in superior court.

Henry Kunkel, charged with illegal sale of liquor, was fined $100. Charges of illegal keeping, preferred against Amos and Fred Dube, were continued for hearing until Tuesday. Daniel L. Keating, charged with illegal sale of liquor, was continued to Saturday.

Thomas R. Waldron, drunkenness, was given a suspended sentence of three months in the house of correction.

You Can Do It Better With Gas

Notice to Gas Consumers

In order to complete the repainting of the large holder at our plant, corner of School and Rock streets, it will be necessary to put it out of use for a period of 24 hours, beginning this evening.

During that time, there is a possibility that in some sections of the city there may be a slight decrease in the pressure of the gas. This might be especially noticed between the hours of 11 a. m. to 12 m. and 5 to 9:30 p. m.

During this work we would ask the indulgence of any of our patron who may be put to any slight inconvenience.

Ambassadors Meet to Draft Note

FRANCE AGREES TO MEET BRITAIN HALF WAY ON TERMS OF NOTE

Premier Poincare Gives Way on Three Chief Points
—British Government Sends Final Instructions to
Lord Crewe at Paris—Council of Ambassadors Meets

PARIS, Nov. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—The allied council of ambassadors, called to consider the text of the note to be sent to Germany, reached a full accord at their meeting this afternoon. The results were declared by the members, leaving the council and by Marshal Foch, to be particularly satisfactory.

Meet Britain Half Way

LONDON, Nov. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—The British government's final instructions to Lord Crewe, British ambassador at Paris, for handling the delicate situation which during the past week has threatened the existence of the alliance, were forwarded to Paris early today. Foreign office officials expressed the hope that definite and permanent beneficial results for the alliance itself and for the continent's relations with Germany would be achieved by the meeting of the council of ambassadors in Paris this afternoon.

The French willingness to meet the allied half way on the terms of the note to be despatched to Germany, is said here to have been the salvation of the situation. Premier Poincare having given way on three chief points.

M. Poincare has assured the British that the ultimatum note could be drafted from the German note; that the request for the extension of the seven days from Germany could be dropped; and that no definite penalties were to be threatened immediately.

The British believe an allied note along these lines will enable the German government to accept the situation without endangering its position.

Whether Germany succeeds, as a British spokesman put it today, in maintaining "her traditional role of playing the fool" remains to be seen when the moment comes for Berlin to reply to the allied communication.

Accept Reservations
PARIS, Nov. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—The council of ambassadors, meeting today, accepted the British note with reservations.

RENIE DAVIES DENIES SHE'S DEAD

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Someone with a perverted sense of humor today started a rumor that Renie Davies, daughter of City Magistrate Davies and sister of Marion Davies, movie star, had shot and killed herself in her apartment on West 58th street, and the report was telephoned police headquarters. Immediately detectives were sent to Miss Davies' home. She received them and personally denied the report of her death. An unknown voice who attempted to imitate the voice of Marion Davies called up two close friends of Miss Renie Davies and advised them to come up to Miss Davies' apartment to examine the will that she had left. When the two men reached the apartment, they found Miss Davies in bed, where she said she had been for the last two weeks with an attack of neuritis.

FAMOUS OLD THEATRE BURNED

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The Thalia theatre, once the Bowery theatre, oldest playhouse in the city, today was damaged by a fire. The theatre, erected before the Civil war, was the scene of Buffalo Bill's first show in the east. For a time in the old days, it gave an evening with Della Fox, Lillian Russell, Maggie Mitchell, Lottie Gibson, Weber & Fields, the Russell Brothers, David Warfield, Harrigan & Hart and other favorites.

PARIS WITHOUT MILK

PARIS, Nov. 21.—Paris was without milk this morning because of a strike of milk handlers for higher wages. The police organized emergency delivery crews in an effort to provide milk by noon.

Father and Children Miraculously Escape Death When Truck is Cut Down by Lowell-Salem Train

RUINS OF TRUCK AND 7-YEAR-OLD ARTHUR ANTHONY WHO CAME THROUGH CRASH WITHOUT A SCRATCH

Angus Anthony of the Fairlawn section of Tewksbury and his two children, Arthur, aged 7, and Winifred, aged 3, miraculously escaped death at 8 o'clock this morning when a big 5-ton motor truck in which they were riding was struck by the 7-40 Salem train at Lynch's crossing about a mile this side of the Tewksbury Centre station. The truck was thrown 60 feet off to one side of the road, both children were pitched headlong through three feet of air and landed in the windshield and their father was trapped in the cab against the steering wheel. The body of the truck was demolished and its load of varied produce, including eggs, olives and canned goods, was scattered about the ground. The boy, Arthur, was unhurt except for a slight scratch here and there; his sister complained some of pains in her back, and the father's major injuries were confined to his right leg. Fate guided the destinies of the three, for it is almost unbelievable that the same accident could have happened again without at least one and possibly three fatalities. Anthony operates a commercial trucking business between Boston and Lowell and was on his way to this city when the accident occurred. He was going by way of Tewksbury Centre so that he might leave his children at the Foster school. It was his usual morning trip, although in most instances in the past the children have ridden in the back of the truck. This

State Officers Allege That John Tsaffaras Attempted to Bribe Local Inspector of the State Highway Commission—Arrest Made at City Hall

An alleged attempt to bribe Edward J. Barrett, a local inspector of the state highway commission, department of public works, was frustrated yesterday afternoon when State Officers E. P. O'Neil and E. J. Sherlock, secreted in the balcony of the old councilman's chamber at city hall where applicants for motor vehicle licenses are examined, heard John Tsaffaras of 29 Varney street making flattering overtures to the inspector and offering him $50 a week if he would "pass" five men proposed by him at given intervals. Tsaffaras was immediately placed under arrest and charged with attempted bribery. In district court this morning he pleaded not guilty and was continued in $1000 bonds until Dec. 5.

The state officials stated this morning that Tsaffaras has been under suspicion for several months. It is their opinion that he is responsible for similar attempts at bribery in Lawrence, Haverhill and Boston, where the same game has been tried unsuccessfully within the past few months. The plan to "pass" applicants, at least the officers, invariably involved dilatory and their operation would not ordinarily entitle them to the privileges enjoyed by a lawfully licensed person. If two of these "illiterates" were passed weekly, the inspector was to be advanced the sum of $50. It is understood that the proper re- sponse for each man accepted in this manner.

SEARCH FOR BOY'S SLAYER

N. Y. Police Directing Every Resource at Their Command to Find Murderer

One of the Most Impressive Funerals Ever Held for a Child Conducted Today

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—While one of the most impressive funerals ever held for a child is being conducted today for four-year-old Irving Pickelny, whose body was found yesterday in a dark tenement basement on the lower East Side, the police are directing every resource at their command in a search for the boy's fiendish slayer. The child is thought by the police to have been lured to the basement by a degenerate, attacked and smothered to death in an effort to stop his cries. Irving, who was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pickelny, disappeared on Oct. 26. The finding of the boy's body deeply touched the Lower East Side and large sympathetic crowds gathered outside the Pickelny home and the building in which the body was found. The police last night found a six-year-old girl and ten 12-year-old boys who told stories of having been approached by men who tried to entice them into the building in which Irving's body was found.

YONKERS MAYOR DIES OF BULLET WOUND

YONKERS, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Mayor Walter M. Taussig today died from a bullet wound, believed by the police to have been self-inflicted. He was found this morning in the garage behind his home, a revolver near him, and was taken to a hospital, where he died.

The police said they knew of no reason why the mayor should have killed himself. A democrat, he was directed for re-election this month by Ulrich Wessenslager, republican.

Mayor Taussig was found about 8:30 o'clock immediately after the shot was fired. He died an hour later with James T. Gordon, one of his closest friends, in attendance, and Mrs. Taussig at the bedside.

Miss Lucy Taussig, a daughter, was the only member of the family at the house when newspapermen arrived. She said she had been asleep at the time of the shooting and knew little concerning it. She was unable to confirm a report that her mother had discovered the tragedy.

Denies Drinking by School Boys

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 21.—Reports of drinking by high school students, denounced as "propaganda" spread by opponents of prohibition, were speakers of the local annual meeting of the council of Connecticut Federation of churches here yesterday. Harrison E. Freeman, chairman of the committee of law enforcement, said he had been prompted by such reports to interview many students and that all of them characterized the reports "fictitious and baseless."

RESCUED FOUR CHILDREN

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Fireman James Giggy today saved the lives of four children trapped in the garret of a burning house. He carried all four of them through smoke so thick he could scarcely see, and with flames scorching his eyes. The children started the fire while playing with matches.

McADOO SUPPORTERS CLAIM VICTORY

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Nov. 21.—(By the Associated Press) Claiming better than a two to one victory in the county proposal conventions over sponsors of a state-wide presidential campaign in behalf of Henry Ford, supporters of William G. McAdoo today began work on a state platform which they hope may be carried into the national arena by their candidate.

Returns today from counties representing approximately three-fourths of the state voting power, gave the McAdoo forces 30,000 votes in the state convention against less than 10,000 for the Ford men, according to leaders in the two campaigns.

SHIP RAMMED WHALE AND BROKE ITS BACK

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—When going through the straits of the Golden Gate, the navy transport Argonne today discovered that it was carrying a whale on its bow.

The whale was rammed by the ship's bow, and the whale's back was broken.

WANTS 1923 RECEIPTS RETURNED

A letter from the city purchasing agent to all department heads sent today asks for the return of all 1923 receipts in his office not later than Dec. 17. This is in conjunction with the mayor's request that all bills be in the hands of the auditor by the 20th of that month so as to allow payment on the 25th.

GERMAN SPY RELEASED

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Nov. 21.—Lothar Witzke, convicted German spy, was released from the federal penitentiary here today. He was met by Henry J. Wilde, German consul, Kansas City. From Kansas City he goes to St. Louis and then to New York for deportation.

TWO ALLEGED BANDITS CAUGHT AFTER CHASE

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 21.—Two bandits walked into the jewelry store of C. M. Bowers, a stone's throw from the state house, this morning, held up the proprietor, and escaped with about $50 in cash. One of the men held up Bowers with a revolver, forcing him to make to flee. The other man, a Negro, made to flee. The showman or safe, police officers at once started a search for the bandits, working on a meagre description which Bowers was able to furnish.

Arrested After Chase

MANCHESTER, N. H., Nov. 21.—Thos. Harrison, who gave his address as 3230 Lincoln avenue, Chicago, and Thomas McQueen, who claims Plainfield, N. J., as his home, were arrested by Motor-cycle Officer Thomas Erwin, shortly after the robbery of a Concord jewelry store, after a chase in which Officer Kelly covered both men with his revolver and ordered them to halt.

Both men are said by the police to have admitted that they had robbed the jewelry store of C. M. Bowers on North Main street, Concord, about 30 minutes before the arrest.

AUTO CONTEST WILL CLOSE DECEMBER 1

Only a little over a week remains for children to enter the competition for the child's automobile offered by the Prince-Otter Co. to the boy or girl 12 years of age or under who submits the list containing the most words composed from the letters found in the name "Prince-Otter."

This contest closes on Saturday, Dec. 1, at noon. Mr. Otter has announced that the judges will be Thomas Atkinson of the Sunday Telegram, Charles J. Hayes of the Lowell Sun and Arthur E. Backpole of the Courier-Citizen and Leader.

DEATHS

DAVIS—Died Nov. 20, in this city, Elizabeth Alice Davis, aged 13 years and 12 days, beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Davis, 36 Taylor street. Besides her parents she is survived by two brothers, Robert O. and Richard H. Davis; three sisters, Virginia, Mary L. and Cynthia A. Davis.

BROADHURST—The many friends of John B. Broadhurst, who died yesterday at the home of his parents, 77 West End street, aged 13 years, 3 months and 11 days, besides his parents, he is survived by one brother, Harold, and a sister, Eva Broadhurst, all of this city.

PLATT—James Platt, a well known resident of this city for the past 30 years, died yesterday at the Lowell Corporation hospital after a brief illness. Deceased was a valued employee of the Merrimack Mill Co. for a number of years. He was an attendant of St. Patrick's church, and made his home at 16 Dutton st. He is survived by one son, Thomas H. Platt of this city, and two daughters, Mrs. Lee Van Hoy of Salisbury, N. H., and Mrs. John H. Gifford of Fall River. The body was removed to the rooms of Undertakers James W. McKenna Sons.

CROWDS AT KING'S TOMB

LENOX, Egypt, Nov. 21.—Crowds of tourists flocked to the Valley of the Kings today, hoping that Howard Carter and his expedition would resume work on the tomb of Tutankhamun and that more treasures might be brought forth. Mr. Carter appears to be making time for the present, evidently awaiting the decision of Egyptian government regarding working arrangements.

FORD-POL-PRESIDENT TICKET

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 21 (By the Associated Press).—A Ford-for-President ticket will be placed on the ballot in Nebraska at the April primaries, according to an announcement made at a small gathering of progressives, farmers, laborers and independents in the office of Roy M. Harrop, regional temporary chairman of the progressive party, here today.

LINER DOCKS AFTER BATTLE WITH GALES

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Nearly a day late, the White Star liner Mauretania docked today, after a six-day battle with gales and strong head seas. At times the liner was able to make only 300 miles a day instead of the usual run of about 600.

SUFFERED PARALYTIC SHOCK

Henry Achin, Sr., father of Henry Achin, Lowell member of the house of representatives, suffered a paralytic shock in the C.M.A.C. club rooms shortly after the adjournment of a meeting last night. He was rushed to the Lowell General hospital in the ambulance and was laid to rest fairly comfortably this morning. Mr. Achin, who is over 60 years old, became ill at the conclusion of the club session and his condition became so serious that medical aid was summoned. His removal to the hospital was immediately ordered.

JURORS PLAN BANQUET

The jurors who are engaged in hearing the cases before the present session of the superior civil court plan on holding a banquet in Marie's restaurant tomorrow evening at which Judge Stanley E. Qua, presiding justice, and several other members of the court will be present. The present session will be completed Friday and the jurors plan this banquet as a mark of respect to the judges and court officials for their co-operation during the court sessions.

TO LINK WATER AND RAIL TRAFFIC

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. Compulsory measures to link water and rail traffic are recommended in a report made public today by a committee of the chamber of commerce of the United States. The committee also suggests, among other proposals, that "congress direct the corps of engineers of the United States army to consider the waterways of the country as a whole and in their relation to other transportation agencies and to recommend a definite development plan and a schedule of priorities."

While the railroads must form the principal part of the nation's transportation system, the report declares, water transportation is cheaper and better under certain conditions and should be developed to supplement rail facilities and provide a safeguard against recurrence of transportation shortages.

Establishment of through rail-and-water, and water-and-rail routes and rates "guaranteed by public authority" is proposed by the committee, which adds that "current carrier rates on inland waterways should normally be lower than railroad rates for similar services" because of the difference in capital and business costs. It also recommends that the secretary of war be given "the necessary authority and funds" to operate the government barge lines on the Mississippi and Warrior rivers "along the lines of good commercial practice" to enable congress to determine more effectively and intelligently its policy regarding the general improvement of navigable channels.

FIRE DISCOVERED IN NICK OF TIME

The early discovery of a fire on the roof of a barn on the property of the John H. Quinn Co. in Duxbury street shortly after 11 o'clock last night prevented a serious fire, for the barn was filled with hay, hay it was scalded when the blaze was discovered and before it had any opportunity to spread the firemen had it under control. The fire was discovered by Officer John Burns and Mr. Quinn was found in his place of the office for his quick work in sounding the alarm.

Three minor fires occurred yesterday. A telephone alarm at 4:22 was sent in for a fire in a tenement at 21 Dana street at 6 o'clock a telephone alarm was sent in for a dump fire on inland street; and at 9:05 a still alarm was recorded for a fire on the Allen street dump.

AUTO STRIKES WOMAN

Blinded by the glaring headlights of an approaching car, William A. Wilson of 11 Royal street, while driving up Thornhill street at about 10:20 last night, failed to see three women who were crossing the street. His machine struck one woman and she in falling caused the other two to fall. None of them was injured and although Mr. Wilson desired to assist the three women they refused to give their names.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

THE STRAND

"Three Wise Fools," with Claude G. Linkwater, Eleanor Boardman and others of screen note, will be shown for the last time today. Those who have not seen this super-picture story, should avail themselves of the opportunity and enjoy something good in film work.

"The Six Fifties," another excellent film, is the second feature. The usual comedy and weekly will help round out a program of double merit.

For the last three days of the week, starting with matinee on Thursday, the bill will have the world-famous story, "Trials," and as a second feature, "Knocking the Barrier," with Dustin Farnum in the leading role.

Richard Walton Tully's screen production of "Trials" was produced by a director and cast thoroughly familiar with the locale of this famous story.

André Lafayette, who portrays the role of Tully, is a strikingly handsome young woman and her interpretation of the role is said to be most commendable.

She comes from France and her physical make-up fits the character in a most convincing manner. Her personality warrants the prediction that she will become a reliable favorite on these shores.

THE ROYAL THEATRE

"The Madness of Youth" will prove an excellent bit of entertainment at the Royal theatre for the two days beginning today. Little Dove co-stars with John Gilbert in this new production. The story deals with the underworld, but in a new, refreshing way. A young man is guided to the right path by love and devotion. A comedy of attraction will bring Alice Brady in "The Snow Bride," her newest Paramount release, in which she is also seconded by a select cast of Paramount players. This again will prove a play with a novel twist. Shorter reels will round out a very satisfactory three-hour show at the Royal theatre. A comedy of unusual interest will be found among the shorter attractions.

REALTY THEATRE

Against a background of picturesque settings and scenic effects typical of the Latin Quarter of Paris, Maurice Tourneur has evolved in "White Paris Sleeps," a picture which breathes the very atmosphere of that famous city of enchantment. The featured player in this new attraction which has never yet been shown on any Lowell screen is Lon Chaney, who is in turn ably supported by John M. Gilbert and Mildred Manning.

No effort has been spared to produce a re-creation of streets and buildings with all the quaint architecture and color typical of the Bohemia of Paris. The Mardi Gras festival which is famed the world over for its gay spirit of revelry has been reproduced in all its elaborate splendor and abandon.

Lon Chaney has a splendid role in the part of Henri Sautou, a Parisian couplet with a temperamental and jealous nature, while John Gilbert in the role of the young American, also is finely cast.

The added feature is "The Balled Door," starring Frank Mayo, who plays the part of a young man whom money cannot rob of his nobility, and who is distinctly a dour. The role ought to be one in which Mayo is seen at his best, since in real life he is the very embodiment of nobility and aristocratic placement. Pathé News and a Monty comedy.

PROBE OF VETS' BUREAU

Public Hearings End—Testimony of Mrs. Mortimer in Private to Be Made Public

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—With the public hearings virtually ended, counsel for the senate veterans' committee began today the task of shaping up for the consideration of the committee the vast volume of information gathered in the investigation of the activities of the Veterans' bureau.

With the closing of the public sessions, John F. O'Quinn, of New York city, general counsel, told the committee last night that what has been presented publicly "constitutes but a fragment of what has been developed, both in relation to the neglect of the disabled and to corruption and waste in the bureau."

The information collected both in the central office and the field will be considered by the committee at business sessions during the next three weeks. There also will be conferences with officials of the bureau for further study of ways and means of bettering the service to the World War veterans, but despite the enormous task ahead of it, the committee hopes to have its report ready for the senate by Dec. 15.

There probably will be several public sessions for the admission to the record of reports and other data and it may be that Mrs. Katherine Mortimer, of Philadelphia, will be heard at one of these in response to her request that she be given a public hearing for discussion of the testimony of her husband, Elmer H. Mortimer, principal witness against former Director Charles R. Forbes and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Williams of Philadelphia. The committee will not pass upon her request until next week, but it has decided to comply with her wish that her testimony at a private session of the committee, two weeks ago, be made public. The date of its publication, however, remains to be determined.

Michigan, with 125,000 acres of land devoted to beet growing, now leads all the states in sugar beet production.

A NICE COOL, FOURTH OF JULY!

Icebound in July! Seems rather hard to believe, yet that's what happened to the S. S. Baychimo during its fur trading expedition into the Arctic. The Baychimo, a Hudson Bay Company vessel, got 230 miles farther into the frozen wastes of the north than any other trading vessel in history in its quest for the million dollars' worth of Alaskan and Siberian furs it brought back.

RETRIAL OF NIKOLOFF ORDERED

PRAGUE, Nov. 21.—The criminal court here has ordered the retrial of Atanas Nikoloff, who was recently acquitted of the charge of assassinating M. Daskaloff, the Bulgarian ambassador, on Aug. 26 last. Nikoloff, according to the police, has confessed that his real name is Jordan Greenkov. He said he first saw the name of Nikoloff on a passport given him by the Bulgarian authorities, whose possible complicity in Daskaloff's assassination will be investigated.

WILL OF ANDREW BONAR LAW

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The will of the late Andrew Bonar Law is a characteristically simple document, written in the former prime minister's own handwriting on a single sheet of Colonial office notepaper. The document is dated Aug. 1, 1916, when Mr. Bonar Law was colonial secretary. A codicil was executed in 1922. According to the Daily Mail, the will has not yet been admitted to probate and the amount of the estate is unknown.

$275,000 LOSS CAUSED BY FIRE

GOLDSBORO, S. C., Nov. 21.—More than 1000 bales of cotton, valued at $200,000 were burned early today in a fire which destroyed a large warehouse here. The building which was owned by the North Carolina Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Marketing Association was valued at $75,000. The cotton was owned by R. G. Thompson, local trader.

TO RECOVER LUSITANIA'S TREASURE

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 21.—A crew is being recruited here by Captain Benjamin F. Leavitt of the steamer Blakeley, who plans to make an attempt next spring to recover the treasure that went down with the Lusitania, when the big liner was sunk off the Irish coast during the war. The expedition is being outfitted at Philadelphia, Captain Leavitt's home port, and he said that only the most thoroughly experienced seamen and expert divers would be taken on the trip.

On Face and Arms. Red and Large. Would Fester. Caused Irritation.

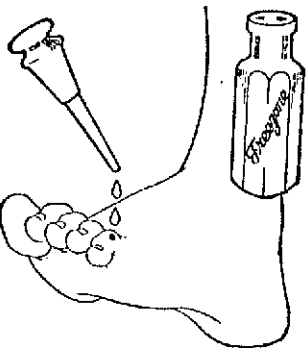

"Some time ago my face and arms broke out with pimples. When they first appeared they were red and large, and after a short time would fester. The pimples itched and burned causing me to rub and irritate the affected parts. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and purchased some. After using them for a week my face was a lot better, and at the end of a month I was healed." (Signed) Miss Myrtle Henderson, Franklin Ave., Houlton, Maine.

MATRIMONIAL

With simple ceremonies performed in the presence of only immediate relatives and intimate friends, Miss Mary G. Birmingham, daughter of Mr. J. W. Birmingham of 27 Wyman street, was married to Mr. John E. McIntyre of this city at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in Immaculate Conception chapel. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Owen P. McElroy, O.M.I., assistant pastor of Immaculate Conception church.

The bride, who was wearing a white gown with fur and pearls, was escorted by her father. The bridegroom wore a tuxedo. The ceremony was a simple one, with the exchange of vows and the presentation of the bride to the groom.

The bride's wedding gown was of white satin trimmed with fur and pearls. She also carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid wore a gown of lavender and metal lace and carried a bouquet of white roses.

One of the season's prettiest weddings was held last night at Highland hall, Branch street, when Miss Alice Eleanor Ziskind, daughter of Mr. Hyman Ziskind, of 9 Apple street, was united in marriage to Nathan E. Cohen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Israel Cohen, of 65 Ware street, by Rabbi Elias Wolf, son of 7 Apple. The bride was becomingly gowned in white duchess satin trimmed with pearls and wore a fan-shaped veil caught up with a coronet of orange blossoms. Miss Alice Ziskind, daughter of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in pale pink georgette trimmed with gold and silver ribbons and carried pink ten roses. The best man was Edward B. Ziskind, brother of the bride.

The flower girls, who carried baskets of white petals and marguerites, were little Dorothy Weinbaum of Brookline, Mass., and Ruth Cohen of Brookline. They both wore honey dew crepe de chine dresses. The bridesmaids were Esther Ziskind, who wore a silver metal gown, Rosalie Cohen, honey dew chiffon and Ruth Cohen, broad silk and ermine trimmings and Sarah Cohen, who wore pink taffeta, silver trimmings. The ushers were Daniel Cohen, Edward Ziskind of this city and Edward and Jack Duchman of Brookline. There were over 250 guests present from Boston, Northampton, Brookline, New York City, Brooklyn, Syracuse, Rochester, Va. Hurley, Wis. and Portland, Me. Mayor John J. Donovan and also Mayor Perry D. Thompson were among the guests. The bride is a popular graduate of the Lowell high school '22 and has been employed as bookkeeper by the Middlesex Paper Tube Co. The groom, a World War veteran, is very well known in this city, being secretary of the Independent Workmen's Circle, executive officer of the Ideal Co-operative bank and member of the B'nai B'rith. Mr. and Mrs. Nathan E. Cohen left on an extended honeymoon trip to New York, Atlantic City and Philadelphia. After the trip they will be at home to their friends at 9 Apple street.

CHALIFOUX EMPLOYEES HOLD MERRY PARTY

Associate hall was filled last evening with many merry dancers of both sexes drawn together by announcements of a Thanksgiving novelty party conducted by the Employees' Mutual Benefit association of the J. L. Chalifoux Co. More than 300 couples enjoyed the festive dinner, refreshments at intermission and entertained numerous invited guests, including Mayor John J. Donovan.

The hall was tastefully decorated in yellow, white and pale blue. Balacony railings were festooned with colored and American flags were given prominent positions on balconies and stage. Many tall palms and other greenery and numerous bouquets of flowers backed the big orchestral platform. Dancing was continuous until intermission at 10:30, when refreshments were served.

The attention furniture Co. and The Chalfoux Shop contributed in every possible way to the success of the party, their merchandise occupying a most prominent place in the specially decorated ballroom.

The committee in charge of the dance was as follows: Mr. A. L. Hise, Mr. Desjardins, Mr. Desjardins, Miss Kibbey, Miss Cotter, Mr. Cote, Miss O'Brien, Mr. Louis Cote in his capacity of floor director was ably assisted by Mr. Arthur Brunelle, assistant floor director and the following aids: Miss Croteau, Miss Delmore, Miss Martin, Miss Whaley, Miss Dorochee, Miss Abbott, Miss Pavo, Mrs. Sandoz, Mr. Boyle, Mr. Burnett, Mr. Churchill, Mr. Robinson, Mr. Martin, Mr. R. Rochelleau, Mr. O'Neil and Mr. Dodge.

The committee on decorations, Mr. Gaudier and Mr. Schreves; the committee in charge of ticket sales, Mr. Chouin and Mr. Cote, and all other committees and aids rendered excellent service and were responsible for the success of the affair.

Stubborn Coughs

Stop Quick With Home Made Cough Mixture

Not until you make your own cough mixture—a half pint of it for a small sum—will you know how easy it is to stop any bad persistent cough as if by magic.

It's pleasant-tasting, but that don't stop it from knocking out a cough quicker than anything else in the world. Children love it.

Get from any druggist one ounce of Parmit (double strength)—to this add a little granulated sugar and enough water to make one-half pint—that's all there is to it.

This lozenge, the phlegm, stops the irritation, allays the inflammation, cleans out clogged nostrils, makes breathing easier, and causes sore throat and hoarseness to disappear.

With speed almost beyond belief this home made cough mixture stops the toughest hard-on cough, and all because in it there is a substance (too costly for ordinary cough syrups) that immediately covers the membrane like a soothing, healing pellicle and blessed relief comes at once.

And it is always worth while to bear in mind that any remedy that overcomes catarrh, partially or wholly, is bound to be of benefit to those who are troubled with head noises and catarrhal deafness.

Get Parmit and get better.—Adv.

Shepherdson Walks Again

Mr. Vernon, N. Y., is amazed to see their local townsman, Mr. A. H. Shepherdson, of 5 West Sixth St., walking about the streets again after being confined to a wheel chair for two years from the effects of rheumatism. Mr. Shepherdson says he obtained Weldona, a preparation for rheumatism, from his druggist, and gives it credit for his recovery. Weldona is said to be very effective for rheumatic conditions and is sold at Dow's and other drug stores. A booklet, "Germs of Rheumatism," explains this preparation, and will be sent free to all who write to Weldona Co., 132 Boylston St., Boston.—Adv.

PACKERS MUST OPEN BOOKS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Swift & Co., Wilson & Co., and the Cudahy Packing Co., will be given until Nov. 23 by Secretary Wallace to open their books and records to auditors of the department of agriculture before action is taken to invoke penalties prescribed by the packers and stockyards act. Negotiations for examination of the packers' records have been conducted for a year, the secretary said in announcing his decision, but the company officials have insisted that such a study was not authorized by the law and would be a violation of their rights.

PLAN ELABORATE INITIATION EXERCISES

Plans for the largest initiation exercises ever held in New England circles locally have been completed for the grand event to be held when over 500 members will be initiated into Union St. John Baptist of America. The day will open with a solemn high mass celebrated at St. Joseph's church at 10:30 o'clock, at which members of Courts Carlin, St. Theresa, and St. James, together with the new applicants for membership, will attend. Following the mass the body will repair to the hall in Pawtucket street. At 1:30 o'clock, in the reception hall, a banquet will be tendered the members, both old and new, following which the party will march to the Memorial Auditorium where at 7 o'clock the new members will be initiated into the union. Among the speakers of the evening will be Very Rev. J. R. Tarant, O.M.I., and Mr. Henri Leclerc of Nashua, N. H.

The following committees are in charge of the affair:

Banquet—George Marchand, Jr., president; Messrs. A. Courcy, E. Montmarquet, Henri Duprez and Hildebrand Genereux.

Finance—A. Courcy, president; Messrs. Montmarquet and Rosario Dubois.

Entertainment—George Marchand, Jr., president; Messrs. Arthur Pratte, Pierre Dubray, and Messrs. A. Gagne, Bernardine Dion and Lucie Ouellette.

Reception—Joseph Montminy, president; Messrs. Amie Plourde, A. Courcy, Henri Duprez and Ernest Rousseau.

Publicity—Armand Gelin, president; Mr. Henri Duprez and Miss Lucie Ouellette.

Field marshal—Mr. Ernest Tineau.

FLUSH THE KIDNEYS BEFORE BREAKFAST

Drink Lots of Water. Also Take a Little Salts if Back Hurts

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Lacking too much rich food creates acids, which excite the kidneys. They become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood. Then we get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The more you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage, or attended by a sensation of scalding, begin drinking a quart of water, or take one of our famous salts, or take any pharmacy, take a substantial in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys may act fine.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush and stimulate the kidneys; also to help neutralize the acids in the system, so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Just Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby often avoiding serious kidney complications. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Adv.

SEWEST AIRPLANE RIVALS BIRD IN FLIGHT

Here is the Perry Helicopter, recently completed at Lombard, Ill. During a recent flight it lifted 3500 pounds of dead weight directly off the ground straight up into the air. It has two pairs of wings superimposed one above the other and revolving in opposite directions. The wings have a spread of 44 feet. It is said the craft can rise or land in a ground space of 100 feet and can fly sideways or hover in the air like a bird.

THIS LITTLE WORLD

WASHINGTON
N.E.A. Service Writer
WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Gratitude is not dead. Broad east upon the waters does return. For instance:
A dignified southern gentleman, now in Washington, driving up the alley to his garage the other evening found a fellow-autocrat in trouble. That the man in distress was colored made no difference to our southern Samaritan. It was enough that his engine wouldn't start. So he proffered his services. Together they traced through the trouble, fixed it and got the car going. The colored driver, profusely grateful, but with a slightly apologetic, even hesitant manner, inquired:

"Boss, does you ever take a hot drink?"
"Well, boss, I sure am oblig' to you. I was just startin' out to make a few deliveries, and I sure would be proud if you'd 'cept a little bottle of corn liker, wit my compliments. An' any time you happens to want no—"
"Gratitude?" Now the Samaritan's friends keep careful watch up alleys in the hope of themselves spying a stalled auto with a grateful driver. Practicing what our preaches is no where more difficult than in public life. But in Brig. Gen. Herbert M. Lord, director of Uncle Sam's budget, Washington presents one man who does it. Lord not only keeps the budget for the government, he keeps a personal one for his own domestic establishment. An outline of a proper domestic budget system, Lord says, might run about like this:

First deduct from the annual salary 10 per cent. for savings, plus an amount sufficient to cover income tax payments. (You see, Lord can't forget that Uncle Sam himself must have his.) Divide the balance into five equal parts for food, shelter, clothing, operating expenses and development.

Apportion these over the year—and keep within them every week.

"Operating expenses" covers such items as fuel and lighting, servants, water, repairs and refreshments. "Development" includes church contributions, benevolences, club dues, medical bills, entertainment, etc.

To make the capital safe for congress, Washington wants more women on the police force. They can best cope with the social situations that undermine morals in all large capitals. It is concluded.

The getting men is a man compared with landing women eligible for Washington's force. A simple test in writing, spelling, arithmetic and physique turns the trick for the male applicant.

But the woman who wishes to help police the city must show that she has:
1—Graduated from a four-year course of a standard high school, or—
2—Completed at least 14 college entrance units of study, or—
3—Graduated from a recognized school for trained nurses, requiring at least two years' hospital residence.

Besides, she must show at least two years' experience in systematic social service or educational work or in commercial work involving public contacts.

Your Health

by Dr. C.C. Robinson

A NEW HEALTH CURE

A new health cure is on the market. There are about 100,000,000 of this cure in the United States. A leading automobile official is authorizing the statement, that after careful investigation, it had been found that the automobile is the cause for an increased lease on life.

In 1902, according to the official average life span in the United States was only 47 years. It has jumped to 48.6 years. In this connection it is interesting to note that in 1903 there were only 1,000 automobiles in the United States. In 1913 when motor cars had increased to 451,000, the life span of the average person had advanced to 49 years. In the last ten years the motor car population has jumped to 1,000,000 and the national life expectancy has risen 1.55 years. This would seem to indicate that the automobile is actually making a life longer and happier in automobile reasoning.

Now comes Dr. Charles H. Mayo of Rochester, Minn., who states that cleanliness and intelligence are the great aids in avoiding life and long-lasting life. The key of life has 12 to 15 years coming to him from his grandfather did. Five more years could be added if every man and woman would undergo a rigid health examination when 40 years of age, and follow health rules.

Dr. James B. Hargreaves of Seattle says that medical science has advanced the span of life at least ten years during the last quarter century. From the foregoing, it would be a matter of choice to decide the cause for increased longevity. If a large number who ride in automobiles don't worry too much about the upkeep and where the money is coming from to

SILVER FOX FARMS IN
MIDDLESEX COUNTY

Middlesex county silver foxes—some of them worth $3,000 apiece right now—are coming into their own at last. The "silvers" are no longer scarce in New England—not the farm-bred kind, anyhow.

Announcements covering the program of the coming silver-fox show scheduled for Mechanics building, Boston, Dec. 12, 13 and 14, under the auspices of the American Fox Breeders' association, is of interest to sportsmen in this vicinity. Silver fox farms are now becoming somewhat common in several rural neighborhoods in old Middlesex county.

J. Howard Pillman, of the wholesale grocery house of Pillman & De-mers, formerly located at 547 Central street, was the original silver fox farmer to attract attention in this immediate vicinity. He started raising the valuable furry quadrupeds on a sheltered section of the new abandoned Shaker Village community in the town of Harvard, near Ayer Junction, and has made a huge success of the venture thus far, and also attracting much attention from the silver fox breeding world at large since he helped to organize the Breeders' association three years ago. Today, as a result of the early endeavors of Mr. Pillman, numerous Bay State citizens, including a physician or two, one banker and several farmers, all good sportsmen with the silver fox fever in their veins, have prosperous breeding farms not very far from Lowell, where visitors go regularly to see the fruits of the unusual breeding game and inspect living specimens of spotlessly beautiful and rare fur-bearing animals that run in values up to several thousand dollars a "pelt."

Among the most successful breeders now flourishing in Middlesex county is E. C. Pond of Lexington. A. W. Moulton of Concord, J. Howard Pillman, now a resident of Ayer Junction, Harry and Robert Prescott of near-by Westford town; also T. A. McCarthy of Haverhill.

Mr. Pillman, a charter member of the three-year-old American Fox Breeders' association, is an enthusiast who has made good. At the present time he has a plot of old farmland good for nothing else but raising silver foxes, apparently. It is located on the old Hattleton road running out of Ayer Junction, beyond the "levee section." On these farmlands owned by Mr. Pillman, there are today more than 60 all-silver foxes, young and old, with a breeding reputation second to none. Prices today range from $300 to more than $3,000, according to selected stock of the registered, pure-bred brand.

The Prescott farms in Westford are lively with silver fox runs on acres just right for harboring them and providing healthy sites for breeding places.

There is much money in selling good early breed selections. The Pillman farm sent away only this week two foxes that sold for $300 apiece. Both are registered and pedigreed way up to the top line, which assists in quick sales for clear specimens of good, vigorous breeding qualities, now greatly desired by the promoters of new farms in many parts of North America.

The Lowell business man captured blue ribbons with his "best flocks" at the Nov. show of the American Fox Breeders' association held in Boston in 1919. "Kaiser" was the champion of the show at that time and many good ones have descended from this prize winner since that time on the Pillman farm.

AT ASSOCIATE HALL

If you would like to enjoy a most pleasant evening the opportunity is afforded at Associate Hall tonight when Joe Hibbard will start an "Old Timers" dancing party with all the old popular numbers being featured. Some of the numbers will bring back pleasant memories and recollections of other days. It will be a regular "mother and father night" and the parents of today will not only be entertained by the old music but also by witnessing the dances of years ago. It will be worth your while to attend. Hibbard's orchestra will furnish the music. The Ladies Social and the club will hold the event of the evening party tomorrow night in the hall up. This organization has a large membership and no doubt the event will be a huge success. Minors' orchestra will furnish the music.

FRIENDS HONOR MISS SMITH

A very pretty shower was tendered Miss Doris Rita Smith, daughter of Mrs. E. Smith, of 17 Deland street, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 14, at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Kelley, of 13 Blunkhorn avenue. A most marriage was performed, Miss Gertrude Shaughnessy acting as minister. Gertrude O'Brien, as bridesmaid, Catherine Crick as best man, and Elizabeth Kelley as bride. The part of bridegroom was taken by Ambrose Sheridan. The house was charmingly decorated in blue and white, and a large wedding bell hanging from the ceiling to a table was much admired. A buffet lunch was served to the gathering, and after merry evening the party broke up. It proved wishing the bride-to-be a long and happy married life.

Nurse Stacey's Suggestions to
Middle Aged Women

MRS. H. STACEY
COLLINSVILLE, ILLINOIS

A MOST trying period of a woman's life is that of middle age, fraught with danger to some extent, and invariably with most annoying symptoms, such as hot-flashes, smothering spells, nervous troubles, irregularities and fainting spells.

When a woman like Nurse Stacey after many years of caring for the sick writes a letter of praise for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound like the following, it should influence other women who are passing through the Change of Life to try it.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a root and herb medicine especially adapted to act upon the feminine system. It helps nature to build up the weakened, nervous system, and enables women to pass this trying period with the least possible annoying symptoms.

Nurse Stacey's Letter Follows:

COLLINSVILLE, ILL.—"I could almost write a book in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In the first place my husband induced me to try it and I have continued taking it off and on for years. I have become a well woman from its use and am now taking it through the Change of Life just to be on the safe side. I first took it for headache and a weak condition of the whole system and I think it saved my life and my baby. She is now a mother and takes it herself and I think I can count as high as a hundred women I have recommended the Vegetable Compound to, as I am a practical nurse. Use my letter in any way you see fit for I will stand by what I write."—Mrs. H. Stacey, Collinsville, Illinois.

Another Woman's Similar Experience

"During the Change of Life I was always tired and weak, could hardly do my work and did not care to go anywhere or talk to people. After I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I noticed a change and before I had taken four bottles of it I felt like a new person. I can and always will recommend it in cases like mine."—Mrs. Jos. WASHBURN, 1119 S. 18th St., Manitowish, Wisconsin.

Her Views on Cooking

Corn Products Refining Co.,

Gentlemen:—

I THINK I can best explain some of my reasons for preferring Mazola instead of any other shortening in cooking, by giving a practical demonstration on paper of a simple luncheon menu which I have used many times in my house, and as you will see Mazola is used in each article served.

Fish Chowder Salted Almonds
Fruit Salad Chocolate Mocha Pie
Oatmeal Muffins Coconut Fudge

For fish, clam or corn chowder, I cover the bottom of the kettle with Mazola oil. When hot, drop in thinly sliced onions, cook until light brown, then add the other ingredients as for any chowder.

I prefer Mazola to pork fat in chowders. For fruit salad I pour French dressing made with Mazola on the fruit, and for a garnish use big spoonfuls of Mazola-mayonnaise.

My oatmeal muffins have a tablespoon of Mazola to each cup of flour.

FOR my almonds after blanching I put in a bowl and pour Mazola over them, stir until well-coated, bake in a flat pan until brown, then turn on to a clean cloth and rub until dry.

For my cake pie I use Mazola for shortening the cake and make the mocha frosting in the usual way only substituting Mazola for one-half of the butter for smoothness as well as economy.

In my coconut fudge I also use half Mazola and half butter.

Mazola is a great time saver at breakfast, as gems and griddle cakes, also blueberry muffins can be made much quicker, and the griddles are much more digestible if fried in Mazola.

To sum it all up, Mazola is the purest, most wholesome, most economical and quickest aid in cooking of any shortening, and am pleased to broadcast my views which I have had ever since I opened my first can, years ago. Have always recommended it in my limited field of personal friends.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Grace K. Brainerd,

SOUTH'S BEST FULLBACK

An outstanding fullback in the south this year is Wycoff of the Georgia Tech squad, a first year player and a brilliant star. Wycoff starred for the southerners against Notre Dame, making his team's only score. Notre Dame players and coaches say Wycoff is the best back who has runned the Irish line all season.

FORMER STAR PITCHERS MY OWN WITHDRAWALS SET HIGH MARK

Adolpho Luque of the Cincinnati Reds was the pitching sensation of the majors last season. The Cuban staged a remarkable comeback after being an in-and-out-er in 1922.

But as good as Luque's record of this year he failed to better those set by Joe Wood, "Wild Bill" Donovan and Walter Johnson in seasons past.

To Joe Wood, with the Boston Red Sox a few years ago, goes the honor of turning in the best pitching performance over a single season in the modern days of baseball. Wood, in 1912, won 34 games and lost but five, for a percentage of .872. That feat still stands as the best on record. And no doubt will for some time to come.

Next in line comes Donovan, who, in 1907, while hurling for Detroit, captured 25 victories against only four defeats, a mark of .862. Walter Johnson, Washington star, and the only one of the trio still in the majors, ranks third. Johnson, in 1913, came through with 36 triumphs and seven whippings. His average was .837.

LOWELL HIGH TO PLAY
WOBURN SATURDAY

Lowell high plays Woburn at Woburn Saturday. Although this game is regarded as important as any, the greater amount of interest is centered on the Thanksgiving day game with Lawrence at Alameda. Tickets for this contest are now on sale in leading stores and the advance sale gives evidence of one of the largest high school attendances on record in this city.

The impressive record of the Lawrence outfit this year is not worrying Coach Eiston's men. Lowell will enter the turkey day affair imbued with a fighting spirit and with every man ready and willing to give his best to bring a victory to the Shinglet City.

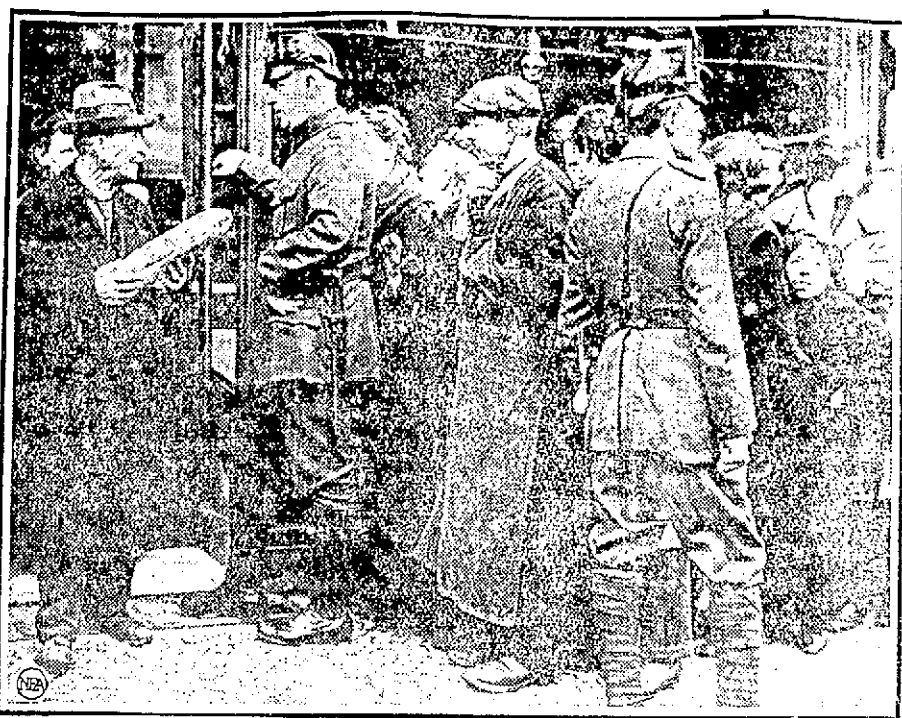

Last year the Devlin-coached eleven pinned a 12 to 0 defeat on the locals.

TALBOT'S

A RARE ARTICLE IN GERMANY

This old fellow, after waiting in line for hours, spent several millions of marks for a loaf of bread, and, judging by the expression on his face, anticipates enjoying the rare delicacy. Raids upon the bakeries of Berlin have necessitated police regulation in the German capital.

JACK BRITTON FAILS TO STAGE COMEBACK

ROSTON, Nov. 21.—Last night marked the passing of a wonderful ring man, and the tragic feature was the almost incessant lussing and jarring that followed his every effort.

Jack Britton, world's champion of all the welterweights for many years, lost his crown a year ago to Melky Walker. Since then he had remained in retirement until last night, when he attempted to start a campaign of fighting that would eventually lead to a second match with his conqueror, Frankie Schnoll of Buffalo.

What a sorry spectacle it was! From the chesty, rambling, and final bell chanced charitably at the end of the 10th, 37-year-old Britton tried "to go home." He tried manfully and gamely, but in vain, to smother the lead away from his younger and more vigorous, but manifestly more timid rival.

But the years have taken their toll. The old ring master retains nothing of the former master's supremacy in his class. He still possesses a bit of his ring craft, and it is well that he did, otherwise, faint-hearted as he was, he might have won within the limit.

Upon the surface the ex-champion appeared almost as of yore, except that a suspicious folding of fat draped the top of his fighting trunk and a black abdominal belt disguised whatever paunch there might have been.

It required less than a minute of boxing for the expert to discern that Jack's eyes had lost some of their keenness, his legs did not carry him in and out and sideways with their wonted speed and it was early patent also that the brain and the muscles were not coordinating with their old-time accuracy. The mind was willing, but the flesh was weak.

BELVIDERES CHALLENGE
O. M. I. CADETS

The following explains itself: "The Belvidere football team issues this final challenge to the O.M.I. Cadets. The Belvidere team has tried to arrange a game with the Cadets, but without results. The Cadet management contends that the Belvideres are not formidable opponents. Last year the Belvideres defeated the Cadets and the year previous, they took the Belvideres into camp. Now the Belvideres are willing to give the Cadets a real opportunity for the championship.

"The Belvidere team will play this game with the Cadets to decide which is the better team. The management is also ready to donate all money collected from the affair, to worthy charity.

"WILLIAM J. DESMOND, Mgr. Belvideres."

FOOTBALL

The manager of the Belvidere Seconds wants to know why the following teams have refused to accept his challenges: St. Patrick's J.H.S., Richard Waunder, and Y.M.C.A. The Belvideres are willing to play any 120-125 pound team in the city. Call 3122-W and ask for John.

The Triangles, formerly the Triangle Juniors, held the Unknowns to a 0-0 game on the South common Sunday. The Triangles are a new and speedy outfit. Players are requested to meet in the boys' room of the Y.M.C.A. this evening.

The manager of the Salem A.A. wishes to have all players report at the clubrooms at 6:30 o'clock.

The International A.C. would like to play the Washingtons in Washington park Saturday, Nov. 24, 1923, using the following players: Walsh, McArthur, Sheridan, Latham, Brooks, Davenport, Perry, McArchie, Currie, Sullivan, Corcoran, McElhann et. If challenge is accepted, answer through this paper.

ST. ANNE'S TO PLAY
PACIFIC MILLS

Notices were posted today on St. Anne's parish house, announcing a basketball game arranged between St. Anne's and the speedy Pacific Mills outfit of basketball stars from down the river. The game will be held in the local floor in the parish building Friday evening. The outfit representing St. Anne's has many players of capability on the floor and an excellent contest is anticipated.

BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 21.—The National A.A.U. basketball championship tournament will be played again this year, and the Convention Hall court here, according to Dr. Joseph A. Reilly, athletic director of the Kansas City Athletic club, it will be the fourth consecutive time in Kansas City.

FOOTBALL PERMITS Football permits for the use of public playgrounds by local teams next Sunday will be given out at the office of the park department at city hall tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

one of the best productions of his career, will be given this evening at the Merrimack Square theatre. There will be an entire change of program.

For Thursday, Friday and Saturday the features will be "The Eternal Struggle" starring Barbara La Marr and Pat O'Malley in a stirring production of the Canadian Northwest, and William Russell in another entertaining production, "Times Have Changed." Reginald Barker has done it again. The man who made "The Storm" and "Hearts Adrift" has added another supreme dramatic achievement to his credit in "The Eternal Struggle." The story is superbly handled and keeps one enthralled throughout the entire unfoldment.

Excite and thrills peppered with romance and adventure keep the story moving at a great pace. There are splendid fights and sensational thrilling scenes close to a rocky gorge through which a river flows and roars. There are real Canadian mountains and forests for backdrops. When the winter scenes were taken, it was so cold that the camera caught the vapor of the actors' breath.

NEW TRAFFIC ORDINANCE REFERRED TO ORDINANCE COMMITTEE

Councilor McPadden Suggested a Public Hearing on the Ordinance and the Council Favored the Recommendation—Report of Last Evening's Meeting

At the meeting of the city council last night the report of the public safety committee, James J. McPadden, chairman, in regard to the proposed traffic ordinance was referred to the ordinance committee. Councilor John J. McPadden, chairman of the ordinance committee, recommended that a public hearing on the proposed traffic ordinance be given next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The council favored the recommendation and instructed the city clerk to give due notice to that effect. The proposed traffic ordinance is the one drawn up by Chief of Police Thomas R. Atkinson and Traffic Supervisor Edward Connors and submitted to the public safety committee last Monday.

Last night's meeting of the council was given over mainly to routine matters. The meeting was called to order at 8:30 o'clock by President James J. Gallagher. All members were present. Councilor Charles McKinnon, his first appearance in the council chamber since he was injured in an automobile accident last last summer, was present. A conference scheduled for last night with Vice-President Prichard of the Lowell Gas Light company was postponed at the latter's request until Dec. 4. Hearings were held on petitions for pole locations by the Lowell Electric Light Corporation and the petitions were referred to the public safety committee. Petitions for a new fire alarm station were referred to the chief of the fire department. Hearings on new petitions for pole locations and additional attachments to present poles were set for Dec. 4. Claims for personal injuries were referred to the claim committee and the city solicitor.

The report of the city solicitor concerning his request to the public safety committee for a site at the corner of the intersection of the railroad tracks and the street in the Edison district was read and referred to the ordinance committee. The ordinance committee recommended that a public hearing be given on the proposed ordinance at 8 o'clock next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The council favored the recommendation and instructed the city clerk to give due notice to that effect.

A formal request from the school committee for a site at the corner of the intersection of the railroad tracks and the street in the Edison district was read and referred to the ordinance committee. The ordinance committee recommended that a public hearing be given on the proposed ordinance at 8 o'clock next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The council favored the recommendation and instructed the city clerk to give due notice to that effect.

HARRISON'S 188 CENTRAL STREET

AUNT SARAH PEABODY, LEADER OF THE SOCIETY FOR THE SUPPRESSION OF PIPE SMOKING COLLAPSED WHEN SHE REALIZED THE TWO PIPE SMOKING DRUMMERS WERE UNJUSTLY ACCUSED OF AIDING LOCAL PIPE SMOKERS—

In an attempt to relieve traffic congestion that is mainly caused by motor vehicle traffic.

Mr. McCormick stated that he was never so surprised at anything as he was at reading the recommendation of Sup. Atkinson, because in the past the street railway company has incurred an expense of over $12,000 in constructing Brookline street and John street loops to relieve congestion in the square and had also followed the suggestions of Traffic Supervisor Edward Connors in changing the location of white poles away from points where they would be likely to interfere with traffic.

"You might just as well draw a circle half-mile from the square and say, 'Electric cars cannot enter this zone, this is reserved for automobiles,'" said Mr. McCormick, "for every passenger carried in a motor vehicle we carry 20 or 30, but we are the ones who are chosen by the police superintendent to bear the onus of traffic congestion."

"I strongly object to that portion of the ordinance recommendations providing that street cars be forbidden to stop between Dutton street and the square and Dutton street and the square. We have co-operated with the police department at all times with reference to eliminating car stops in the business section of the city and we have never refused to adopt any suggestion advanced by Traffic Supervisor Edward Connors or Chief Atkinson. But would in any way relieve traffic congestion. At the present time, we have only one stop between Tower's corner and the square and Dutton street and the square and it would be a real hardship and an injustice to our riders if it were made compulsory for them to be carried to the square and not permitted to leave the cars at any point between the above mentioned places. This would be particularly true in stormy weather. It would make a car-ride very disagreeable to stop on either Central or Merrimack street side to the square and then walk approximately one-quarter of a mile."

"I believe the street railway company has done its share in reducing traffic congestion by expending approximately $12,000 in the construction of the Brookline street loop and the loop from Merrimack street to John street. The use of these loops has removed about 120 cars a day from the square. It would seem to me that the first way to reduce congestion would be to eliminate parking on Central and Merrimack streets in the above referred to areas."

Mr. McCormick also suggested that during the Christmas shopping rush that automobiles be kept off the street and cars be kept off the street.

DRACUT DIVORCE CASE HEARD HERE

A divorce action brought by Lydia M. Bebrund of Dracut against Rudolph W. Bebrund of Penacook, N. H., whom she married in Lawrence in 1905, was heard this morning in jury-waived session of superior court here before Judge Nelson Brown. Frank Goldman represents the Hildes and Douglas & Douglas the defendant.

The mother acts custody of the four children. Cruel and abusive treatment is charged. Two children testified that they had often heard the father abuse their mother and that he had at various times assaulted her in their presence. Judge Brown will adhere to the custom of established yesterday, of entering all decisions at the close of the day's calendar.

Judges White and Larnal, who opened here yesterday in Probate Court, this morning returned to Cambridge where they will sit for the remainder of the week, returning here next week.

HIGH PRAISE FOR LOWELL RECRUITS

Gen. Com. A. J. Gulliver, U.S.N., recruiting chief in Boston, threw a few bouquets at the type of men Lowell has been sending into the navy, in his letter to the sub-stations this morning. An excerpt follows: "In Lowell, where the recruiting station is as soon as the man is accepted, we are getting more and better recruits than from any other sub-station in the first district. Lowell boys surpass all others in cleanliness, good physique and capacity to get on."

IRENE CASTLE WANTS TO MOVE LIQUOR SUPPLY

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Irene Castle wants to move her supply of liquor, valued at several thousand dollars, from her former home in Ithaca, N. Y., to her residence here. She made application for the transfer yesterday to Prohibition Director Canfield, but refused to discuss her "cellar."

Officials said the regulations did not allow them to disclose confidential information relating to such applications, because "certain applicants for such transfer permits are of such respectable standing in this community" that they were afraid such disclosures might "shamefully harm them."

A meeting of parents of pupils of the Varum school with the teachers of that school will be held in the school hall tonight at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of forming a Parent Teachers' organization. The meeting will be addressed by Principal Elizabeth Kennedy of the Varum school and Headmaster Henry H. Harris of the high school.

TO OPEN WAITING ROOM EAGLES HOLD MEETING

Street Railway Will Have Waiting Room in the Gallagher Store

Addresses by Mayor of Cambridge, Mayor Donovan and Councilor Gallagher

A waiting room for patrons of the street railway company will be opened in James J. Gallagher's store in the square within a week.

Manager Maurice E. McCormick made this announcement today following a conference with the trustees of the street railway company at a rental of $100 a month as a temporary waiting room. This was done in accordance with the suggestion of the city council committee appointed to investigate the waiting room situation and the presidents of the four local district betterment associations.

Purchasers for the convenience of the street railway patrons were built last fall when it was first suggested that a waiting room be located in Gallagher's store and these are now being stained and varnished to match the interior decoration of the store.

The temporary clause in the agreement is due to the fact that Mr. Gallagher may desire to sell out the store in the near future and if he does so the street railway company will have to get out at the same time.

The waiting room proposition has been before the public for several months and the street railway company's reason for not furnishing one prior to the present time is that rentals in other locations were prohibitive. The rental price of Gallagher's store is about as high as the company's finances will permit and Manager McCormick is grateful to Mr. Gallagher for offering his store as a temporary remedy to present conditions and that patrons of the company will not have to stand on the street during the coming winter months.

The case of William A. Gourley of Tenshore, administrator of the estate of his wife, Rosina E. Gourley, who died in February, 1922, without leaving a will, in which the former petitions for instructions regarding the distribution of the estate valued at $75,000, was continued yesterday afternoon in the probate court before Judge White.

When the action was started Mrs. Mra. L'Esperance of Lowell, a niece of the deceased, and the husband were thought the only claimants, with the exception of two young men, Myron C. and Ross Myron. They claim to be sons of Charles Battles, a brother of the deceased. Their claim is disputed by Mrs. L'Esperance. It is admitted by the Merrill brothers' lawyers that these two sons were born before Mr. Battles married his mother, who was the wife of another at the time of their birth.

The committee in charge of the evening's program was: Past President Timothy F. Barry, Worthly Vice President Hugh H. Gallagher, Treasurer David J. Hackett, Assistant Secretary Daniel J. McCaffrey, John E. Devlin, John Dagunas, Joseph Wedge, Lon Gage, Edward C. Safford, W. G. John, Joseph D. Lamoureux, G. O. John, T. Fells, trustees, John J. Driscoll, Richard J. Flynn and William F. Carey, visiting committee, Peter J. Quinn, John B. Lennett, George P. Lunderville, John P. McCarthy, Thomas F. Quinn, Jr., George M. Shields, James P. Donnelly, Charles E. Safford, W. G. John, Thomas F. Quinn and Secretary John M. Hogan.

TODAY'S CASES IN THE DISTRICT COURT

George R. Hartley was sentenced to six months in the house of correction, for drunkenness, by Judge Enright in district court this morning. Officer Louis Leamy, who arrested him last night, stated that he was a source of annoyance to the woman whom he persisted in paying attention to, and that he insulted people and otherwise conducted himself improperly. Hartley appealed the sentence and was ordered to recognize in the sum of $200 for his appearance in superior court.

Helen Korhik, charged with illegal sale of liquor, was fined $100. Charges of illegal keeping, preferred against Amadeo and Fred Duba, were continued for hearing until Dec. 1. Peter Bauer, illegal keeping, was continued in Superior court.

Thomas H. Waldron, drunkenness, was given a suspended sentence of three months in the house of correction.

A continuance to Dec. 5 was granted Andre Coutu, charged with operating a motor vehicle in a manner to endanger the lives and safety of the public.

A process for making paper from potato tops has been patented in Germany.
